about bangor

BANGOR, MAINE. THE “QUEEN CITY.” When the first people settled here hundreds of years ago, they couldn’t have imagined the vibrant city it would one day become.

Nestled adjacent to the mighty Penobscot River, Bangor was for much of the 19th century the “lumber capital of the world.” Today the third-largest city in Maine, Bangor has made good on that momentum. It’s the retail, cultural and service center for northern, central and “Down East” Maine as well as neighboring Canadian provinces.

In Bangor, there’s no shortage of things to see, to do, and to experience. From world-class dining and vibrant nightlife to family-friendly activities and relaxing public spaces, the possibilities are endless. For the more adventurous visitor, Bar Harbor, Acadia National Park and Baxter State Park are just a quick drive away.

Go ahead. Explore. Grab a bite and experience the charm and hospitality the greater Bangor region’s known for.

WE’RE GLAD YOU’RE HERE.
Visit downtown Bangor’s West Market Square for delicious dining and shopping.

DO IT LIKE THE LOCALS. The top 5 things to see and do in Bangor.

SK TOURS
It’s no secret that Bangor is the home of the master of horror himself, Stephen King. Astute readers know that many of King’s settings, including the town of Derry, are inspired by Bangor and its landmarks. Fans can enjoy a tour of these locations on this guided tour, which includes a drive-by of King’s (some say spooky) home. | sk-tours.com

COLE LAND TRANSPORTATION MUSEUM
Fancy yourself a transportation enthusiast? Even if you’re not, you’ll marvel at the collection of vehicles here. This museum dedicated to preserving and displaying Maine’s land transportation equipment features trucks, trains, snowplows, motorcycles and more. | 405 Perry Rd., Bangor

PAUL BUNYAN STATUE
Many communities claim Paul Bunyan as a native son, but any Bangor resident will tell you that Bangor’s his real birthplace. Visit this 31-foot statue of the big mythic lumberjack. | 519 Main St., Bangor

MT. HOPE CEMETERY
The second-oldest garden cemetery in the United States and listed on the National Register of Historic Places, this is the final resting place of famous (and infamous) folk like Vice President Hannibal Hamlin, “Public Enemy No. 1” Al Brady, and various politicians and Civil War generals. It also makes for a nice walking path. | 1048 State St., Bangor

BANGOR CITY FOREST
Also known as the Rolland F. Perry City Forest, this park consists of approximately 650 acres and almost 10 miles of trails to explore by foot, bike or cross-country ski. Trails are well-maintained and wind through a variety of flora and terrain. Don’t miss the Orono Bog Walk, a one-mile boardwalk over the Orono Bog. | Parking at the end of Tripp Drive and Kittredge Road.
A kayak tour through downtown Bangor’s canals offers a new perspective on the city and a fun way to spend the afternoon.
