Portland nightclub singer has 'Idol' moment

BY KATHLEEN PIERCE BDN STAFF

PORTLAND — Conor Tubbs of Portland has been a recurrent feature at Styxx Nightclub as drag singer Cherry Lemonade. This month, Cherry steps out in a big way. The lusty performer with ultralong lashes is part of Fox's 14th season of "American Idol."

"I would be lying if I nervous," said I wasn't nervous," Tubbs said of his audition in front of celebrity judges Jennifer Lopez, Keith Urban and Harry Connick Jr. last year, when the singer belted out Amy Winehouse's "Rehab," as Lopez shimmied in her

"It's a very eye-opening experience. Days upon days of different things you have to do, producers you have to impress," the 27-year-old Tubbs said. "It's something I've been wanting to do for years. So when you get the opportunity, it's go time, and I was ready. I consid-

Tubbs tried out for "American Idol" three times before making the initial cut this summer when the Fox audition bus pulled into the Maine State

Pier on a sticky July day. Amid the hundreds who waited in line to audition, Tubbs stood out. Fully made-up as his alter-ego Cherry Lemonade, he belted out Winehouse songs and Motown hits as he waited for his turn.

"Being able to incorporate drag gave me a bit of an edge," he said.

The entertainer went on to further auditions in other cities. How many? We'll have to wait to find

Since then, his trajectory has been a whirlwind.

"I got to do something really amazing that others don't get to, and I got to do it on my terms," said Tubbs, who is working on a record of original songs and is getting out-of-state gigs propelled by his brush with His advice for would-be contestants?

"A lot of people go on the show and try to be what they think the judges want,' said Tubbs. "I decided I was going to be me."

silent auction, 8-11 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 7, Katy Perry says Kravitz to join her halftime show

REUTERS

Pop singer Katy Perry announced on Saturday that Grammy-award winning singer-songwriter Lenny Kravitz will join her on stage for a guest appearance during the halftime entertainment at February's Super Bowl.

"He's the coolest!" Perry said of Kravitz during an excerpt of an interview set to air on NBC on Monday. The announcement was made during Saturday's playoff game between the Baltimore Ravens and New England Patriots.

Perry did not give any hints about which songs the pair might perform during the game, the most-watched U.S. sporting and television

Shortly after the Super Bowl performance, Kravitz will kick off the second-leg of a world tour in support of his latest studio album "Strut."

Perry, 30, joins the likes of Madonna, Beyonce and Prince to perform at the NFL's Super Bowl halftime show, which regularly attracts more viewers than the average for the championship game itself.

The Super Bowl will be played Feb. 1 in Glendale. Arizona, and broadcast on Comcast-owned network

The 2014 Super Bowl on Fox averaged a record 112.2 million viewers, while the halftime performance by singer Bruno Mars and rock group Red Hot Chili Peppers drew 115.3 million viewers, according to Nielsen.
