

OBITUARIES

JOHN L. DUDLEY

BANGOR - John L. Dudley, 76, passed away peacefully on Sept. 5, 2015, at a Bangor healthcare facility, surrounded by his family. He was born in 1938 in Hanover, NH, the son of Robert M. and Helen (Johnson) Dudley.

John completed his bachelor's degree in English at the University of Maine in 1962. He subsequently began a 35-year career as a high school educator and earned a master's degree in education at USM. During a 12-year tenure at Morse High School in Bath, John taught English and coached football and wrestling. His football teams won five consecutive state championships from 1968 to 1972. He continued as a teacher and football coach at Cony High School in Augusta and later served as an assistant principal. His community involvement included organizing an annual Jimmy Fund golf tournament, serving on city committees, and running youth football camps.

John is survived by his wife Carol (O'Connell) Dudley, their three children, and four grandchildren: Juli-Ann Stickney, her husband Andrew, and their sons Zachary and Drew of Milton, GA; John L. Dudley, Jr. of Canton, MA; and Jane Poulin, her husband John, their son Henry, and their daughter Parker of Bangor. John is also survived by his sister Ann DeWitt of Topsham and predeceased by sister Jane Newhall and brother William Dudley. The family would like to thank the outstanding staff at Stillwater Healthcare for taking excellent care of John during these last few years.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated 11 a.m., Saturday, Sept. 12, 2015, at St. Paul the Apostle Parish, St. John's Catholic Church, York St., Bangor. Burial will be at Mt. Pleasant Catholic Cemetery in Bangor, with a gathering of family and friends immediately following. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Stillwater Healthcare, Activities Fund, 335 Stillwater Ave., Bangor, ME 04401.

BERT L. LERICHE

HAMPDEN - Bert L. LeRiche, 72, husband of Carmella (Levesque) of Old Town for 52 years, died September 4, 2015 after a very long illness with his wife and daughter, who would not leave his side; as well as many of his family members. He was born January 5, 1943 in Old Town the son of Alfred "Freddie" and Lidia LeRiche.

Bert was schooled in Old Town where he played football. He served in the United States Army reserve for 6 years and was a life time member of the rifle club. Bert was self employed for 30 years until going to work for General Electric where he stayed until he became ill in 2000.

In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by a brother Alfred LeRiche Jr. Bert is survived by his wife Carmella; daughter Tammy "LeRiche" Loring and her husband Joe, of Indian Island; two grandchildren, Alice and Neil Day; great-granddaughter, Ciara Day who has been the apple of his eye since she was born 10 years ago; his sister Jackie Crouse; his sister-in-law Maggie Shorette who was there to help out very often; brothers-in-law, Richard and Paul "Manny" Levesque who were very close to his heart; we also have to mention Judy Robinson who also was so dear to him, for they loved giving his wife a hard time. One was as bad as the other. His wife's family who he lived with since he was sixteen and they thought so much of him. Carmella's mother thought of him as her own son. All the rest of the family meant as much, just too many to mention.

He wanted to thank the Hampden Paramedics and Police departments. They have been so great to him; words could never express his feels for them. No matter how sick he was, he was their "Joker," Hospice of Eastern Maine, Dr. Vankurt, and everyone for their loving care.

A memorial gathering will be held 1:00pm Saturday, September 12, 2015 at Carmella's house, with Joe Duntun sharing words and prayers of remembrance.

Memorial donations in Bert's memory may be made to the Hampden Paramedic and Police Department, 106 Western Ave., Hampden, Maine 04444. Condolences to the family may be expressed at www.BrookingsSmith.com

NORMAN J. MARTIN

ASHLAND - Norman J. Martin, 88, of Ashland, Maine, died August 26, 2015. He was born April 4, 1927, the son of Joseph P. Martin and Modeste Bouchard Martin.

He is survived by his wife, Olean G. Theriault Martin; daughter, Nancy Martin Burby of Portage Lake, Maine; daughter Cathy Martin Carney of Pahrump, Nevada; step daughter, Ann Storey Weaver of Warwick, Rhode Island; daughter, Margaret Martin Levesque of Mars Hill, Maine; sister, Blanche Lajoie of Henderson Harbor, New York; sister, Rolande Woodward of Charleston, W. Virginia; brother, Paul Martin of Kokomo, Indiana; step brother, Linwood Doak of Windsor Locks, Connecticut; 9 grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren.

He is predeceased by his son, Steven Carl Martin, Army Veteran, Vietnam, of Portland, Maine; sister, Lottie Blanchette of Eagle Lake, Maine; sister, Theresa Martin of Kokomo, Indiana; brother, Harold Martin of Washburn, Maine; brother Albert Martin of Houlton, Maine; and brother, Reginald Martin of Washburn, Maine.

Norman was an Army Veteran, Korea. He was an Electrician by trade. He enjoyed the sportsman life of hunting and fishing the North Maine Woodlands and traveling to Nevada.

BELOVED HUSBAND AND FATHER Services will be graveside in Ashland, Maine, yet to be determined at a future time.

More obituaries on Pages C4-5

THE 38TH ANNUAL BANGOR GUN SHOW

September 12th & 13th at Cross Insurance Center

Admission - $8

Sat. 9 a.m. - 5 p.m., Sun. 9 a.m. - 2 p.m.

$7 for NRA, Law Enforcement or Military (w/ID) Children under 12 free with adult

• new • used • antiques • collectibles

Try our shooting gallery for fun & prizes!

Information: 941-8575

Join the NRA at the show and get in FREE!

bile trails for the Walker Siding S.C. and the Aroostook River S.C. in which he was a member. One of Jason's proudest moments was when he became a member of the Order of Masons Lodge 170 and Anah Shrine in Presque Isle, Maine. He recently joined the Anah Shrine Oriental Band. He was a member of the Masonic Riders Association, Widows Sons-Northern Maine Chapter- Men of Tyre, as the Road Captain. He was also a member of the West-side Motorcycle Club in southern Maine. Jason will be remembered by so many for his quick wit, his love of life behind the wheels of his Harley or on his snowmobile. Jason had amazing strength, courage and determination while living his life to the fullest. To know him was to love him.

He will be sadly missed by his mother, father, step mother, Barb Nardone, half-sister Andrea Cramer of Birch Harbor, Maine, his faithful dog "Tigger" and his super special friends.

A Mason Service and a "Celebration of his life party" will be held at Caribou Inn and Convention Center, 19 Main St., September 19th at 2 pm. In lieu of flowers, please send donations to County Dialysis Center, 26 North St. Presque Isle, Maine or to the Central Aroostook Humane Society, 26 Cross St, Presque Isle, Maine 04769. Online condolences may be shared at www.duncan-graves.com

Prime-Time TV Schedule on B4

JASON O. NARDONE

WOODLAND - Jason O. Nardone, beloved son, brother, and friend to many passed away surrounded by his loving family and close friends on September 2nd, 2015 at Eastern Maine Medical Center in Bangor, Maine. He was born September 9th, 1973 in Caribou, Maine, the son of James R. and Gail (Goodblood) Nardone.

Jason worked as a truck driver and heavy equipment operator most of his life. He was employed with Langille Construction at the time of his passing. Jason was born to ride. He earned his nickname "Racin Jason" early on in his life. He had a passion for speed no matter what he was driving. In high school he was the parliamentarian of the VICA club, a member of the Future Business Leaders of America and attended Upward Bound.

After graduation he attended NMTC. Jason volunteered many hours at the Northern Maine Fair Assoc. while participating in many events. He enjoyed driving the pace car and participating at Spud Speedway last summer. He worked several hours grooming snowmo-

BANGOR SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

COLLINS CENTER FOR THE ARTS

PIANO MEN: THE MUSIC OF ELTON AND BILLY

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 2015 AT 8:00 P.M. AT THE COLLINS CENTER FOR THE ARTS

AT RIBUTE TO THE AMAZING SONGS OF ELTON JOHN AND BILLY JOEL PERFORMED BY JOE BOUCHER, A FOUR-PIECE BAND AND THE BANGOR SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

TICKETS $33-$60 CALL AT 1-800-622-TIXX OR VISIT COLLINSCENTERFORARTS.COM

CONCERT SPONSORED BY:

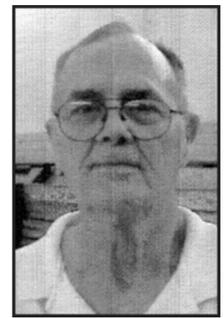

UNIVERSITY OF MAINE FOUNDATION

THE UNIVERSITY OF MAINE Celebrating 150 Years

BDN

MAINE ARTS CENTER

Bangor Savings Bank

FRANCIS SIBLEY

VEAZIE - Francis Sibley, 94, died September 7, 2015 at a Bangor hospital. Born August 12, 1921 on the Shin Pond Road, Patten, Maine to Frank and Sarah (Reed) Sibley.

At age 2 1/2 his family moved to Bangor where he grew up as the middle boy of five sons.

He attended Mary Snow School until the age of nine when his mother died and he and a brother went to the Good Will School in Hinckley, where they remained for several years until they moved to Vanceboro to live with their father.

On December 12, 1939, he joined the U.S Army where his service consisted of the 18th Combat Engineers, a guard at the U.S. Army Disciplinary Barracks in Kansas, and the Pacific Theater-New Guinea and Southern Philippines.

He worked at the Eastern Corporation/Standard Packaging in both Brewer and Lincoln from 1946 until retirement in 1982 when he returned to Veazie.

With a special interest in sports, he enjoyed watching his children and grandchildren participate in school sports and he even mowed a field near his home so all the neighborhood children could play ball.

Gardening was a favorite pastime in summer, when he grew special corn, raspberries, and glads, among other crops.

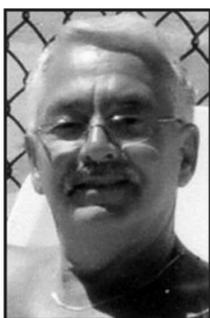

He was predeceased by his wife, Shirley (Hathaway) Sibley.

Surviving are his children, Lee Sibley of Wilmington, DE., Glenice Sibley of Veazie, Keith Sibley of Kennebunk, and Julia Epperson of Acton, MA.; grandchildren, Calvin Sibley of Orlando, FL., Stephen Sibley of Germantown, MD., Christopher and Jarod Sibley, both of Howell, Michigan, Lila and Georgia Epperson both of Acton, MA.; great grandchildren, Arius and Leo Sibley; brothers, Robert Sibley of Carmel, Galen Sibley of Bangor, Loren Sibley of Bristol; many nieces and nephews, including a special niece, Susan Garland of Bangor.

A graveside service with military honors will be held 1 p.m. Friday, September 11, 2015 at Fairview Cemetery, Veazie. The family invites relatives and friends to share conversation and refreshments at the Family Reception Center of Brookings-Smith, 163 Center St., Bangor following the service.

Gifts in his memory may be sent to the Cardiac Rehab. Program, C/O Bangor Y, 17 Second St., Bangor, ME. 04401.

Condolences to the family may be expressed at www.BrookingsSmith.com.

ULYSSE GRONDIN

MADAWASKA - Ulysse Grondin, 76, passed away on Tuesday, September 1, 2015 at a Van Buren health care facility. He was born in Edmundston, New Brunswick on November 23, 1938, son of the late Leo and Jeannine (Grondin) Grondin.

He is survived by his loving wife of fifty two years Louise (Albert) Grondin of Madwaska; his beloved son, Dan Grondin and his wife Peggy of Madawaska; one brother, Jeannot Grondin and his wife Lise of Edmundston; and three nieces.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated 10am on Thursday, September 10, 2015 at the St. Thomas Aquinas Church. Family and friends may offer their condolences at the church from 9am until time of service on Thursday. Interment will be held at a later date. Arrangements have been entrusted to Lajoie Funeral Home. For online condolences, please visit www.lajoiefuneralhome.com

COLIN W. CAMPBELL

CARIBOU - Colin W. Campbell, 40, died unexpectedly September 7, 2015, at Caribou as the result of an accident. He was born in St. John N.B. Canada November 22, 1974, the son of Duane and Bonnie (Hansen) Campbell.

Colin served with the US Army and following his discharge was a self employed barber in the Caribou area. He married Beatrice Johnston March 6, 1996. Colin was a member and current president of the Sanctum Dirigo Motorcycle Club.

Surviving in addition to his wife of Caribou and his parents of Lakeville Corners N.B. Canada are his children, Brandon Johnston, Cody and Dustin Campbell all of Caribou and Ashley Lauren Johnston of Limestone. One brother, Kris Campbell and fiancé Angela Carberry of Lakeville Corners, nieces and nephews, Garrett, Gabriel and Gavin Haley, Isabelle Campbell, and Jasmine and Angel Carberry.

Friends may call at the Mockler Funeral Home 24 Reservoir Street Caribou 2-4pm Thursday. Friends who wish to contribute in Colin's memory may do so to support his family. www.mocklerfuneralhome.com

PAMELA SUE MARSHALL FLOOD

BANGOR - Pamela Sue Marshall Flood, 57, of Bangor, died unexpectedly on Friday, Sept. 4.

She leaves her husband, Dana Flood, and daughter, Beverly Flood Bass, son-in-law Chad Bass, and two grandchildren, Hayden and Caitlin. She also leaves her father, Duke Marshall and his wife, Ellie. She also leaves her brother Steven Marshall and family and her sister Debbie Miller and her family. She was predeceased by her daughter, Natasha Flood.

A long-time educator, school administrator, college professor and researcher, she was loved and admired by all who knew her. She was a mentor and a friend and left the world a much better place.

An open house at 18 West Broadway, Bangor, will be held on Sunday, September 13, 2015 from 11:00 am - 2:00 PM. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the Natasha Flood Memorial Scholarship. Donations can be sent to Syntiro, 11 South Road, Readfield, ME 04355 to be forwarded to Florida State University High School where the scholarship resides.