

OBITUARIES

MURRAY A. CHATTO

VERONA ISLAND - Murray A. Chatto, 93, died peacefully, September 20, at a Bangor Hospital. He was born June 17, 1922, in the Town of Penobscot, son of Ernest and Kathleen (Grindle) Chatto.

Murray was a 1940 graduate of Bucksport High School, a veteran of WWII serving in the US Coast Guard during the Pacific and European Theaters, an employee of South Portland Shipyard and a retiree from Champion International Paper Co. formerly known as St. Regis Paper Co. after forty-two years of service. Following retirement, he worked for many years for Heritage Tackle and Gear. He was a member of the Verona American Legion, Masons and the Franklin Street Methodist Church. He was an avid fisherman and hunter and enjoyed doing so with the gang made up of family and close friends. Murray and his wife enjoyed the adventures of traveling by themselves, with the gang and in later years accompanying family members.

Murray is survived by daughters, Loretta J. Watt and husband, Gerald, and Jacqueline M. Oliver and husband, Owen, all of Verona Island; grandchildren, Daniel Watt and husband, James Britton of Orland, Nanette Smith and husband, Stephen, of Litchfield, Lillian Walker and husband, Hazen, of Verona Island, Michelle Astbury and husband, Wyatt, of Orland, and Jason Oliver and wife, Kris, of Sanford; great grandchildren, Jessica Adams and fiancée, Owen, of Searsport, Christopher Warford and partner, Nicole, of Carmel, Kathryn and John Smith of Litchfield, Clayton and Samuel Doolan of Orland, Melissa Palumbo and husband, Michael, of Biddeford, Jamie Britton of Brewer, Garrett Walker and partner, Morgan, of Masardis, Christopher Walker and partner, Mackenzie, of Portage; great-great grandchildren, Dominic Adams of Searsport, Isabella Warford of Carmel and Elizabeth Walker of Portage; brothers-in-law, Lloyd E. Turner and wife Gloria, of East Orland, and Robert Brawn of Searsport; nieces, Lee Ann, Vicki, Debbie, Rosemary, Colleen and Cathy; and nephews, Lloyd, Jr., Robert, Jr., and Ernest.

Murray was predeceased by his wife of seventy-one years, Maxine; his parents; sisters, Muriel and husband Shirley, Vivian, Gladys and husband, Robert; grandson-in-law, Clifford Doolan; great grandchildren, Anna Smith and Brandon Astbury; brother-in-law, George E. Turner and wife, Eileen; nephews George E. Turner, Jr. and Dean Boyce.

A graveside service will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday, September 26, 2015 at the Riverview Cemetery, North Bucksport with Pastor Peter Remick officiating, with Masonic and Military ceremonial participation. A time of remembrance will be held at the Verona Town Hall following the service. In lieu of flowers, donations in Mur-rays name may be made to a charity of your choice. DONALD CARVIN

HOULTON - Donald Carvin, 88, died September 21, 2015. He was born November 22, 1926 in Tansboro, New Jersey, the son of James & Catherine (Marshall) Carvin.

Donald graduated from trade school in 1945 as a skilled cabinet maker. He started his career in the logging industry, in the swamps of New Jersey, cutting trees that would be used as telephone poles. The original "swamp logger" Donald and partner Bill Broome would have to hand saw enough trees to build a road, and then hand cut the poles, hauling them across the newly built road.

Donald served in the United States Army at the end of World War II serving as a special courier for the Lynch-burg trials in Germany, as well as time served in Alaska.

Upon release from the military Donald worked briefly in an auto repair garage and then moved into construction where he proudly built some of the best homes in south Jersey. For over forty years he ran his own business and was known for the quality of his construction. His passion was skilled craftsmanship, everything was built to last, and he often reverted back to his training to craft beautiful furniture. Donald loved to bless his family with his treasures, his most special gift a cradle for his great grandbabies. The family would often tease him because he didn't just build them sturdy, he built them heavy.

Donald was an avid hunter and throughout his life he traveled all across the US and Canada on hunting trips. He made life long friends and wonderful memories. In the late 60's Donald moved to Maine briefly and helped the new owners of the Bowlin Pond Camps make repairs to their new hunting lodge. These were the happiest days of his life, using his skills as a builder and craftsman as well as having the ability to hunt just about any time he wanted, during season of course.

Donald will be remembered as a man of quiet strength, dignity, honesty and compassion. His warm smile, his gentle hugs, the love for his family, and let's not forget a touch of stubbornness, these things defined his 88 years.

In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by two brothers, James and Marshall and a sister Sylvia. Donald is survived by his only daughter, Cathy Davis and her husband Mac, with whom he lived for the last 18 years. Grandchildren Michael Surran and his wife Lisa, Erica Davis Rockwell, her husband Jaime and their children Jonathan, Landon, Carter and Lillie, and Matthew Davis and his wife Billie Jo and their son Waylon. Also special friends Jim and Sue Fecondo and Jon and Betty Smallwood, and an entire extended family of those who were touched by Donald's generosity and craftsmanship.

Per Donald's wishes there will be no services. The family will gather during hunting season to celebrate a rich and wonderful life. Those who wish to remember Donald in a special way may make gifts in his memory to the charity of your choice c/o Dunn Funeral Home 11 Park Street Houlton, 04730. Online condolences and guest book: dunnfuneral.com

Oscar Wilde said "to live is the rarest thing in the world. Most people exist, that is all". Donald lived and he lived well. He will be remembered with love and respect.

LIONEL PARADIS

man of great faith and a devoted Catholic Christian. He had a great love for God, his wife and children and grandchildren. Lionel was a loving, kindhearted husband, father and friend to those who knew him. He was known to be a very honest, hard working man and would open his home and heart to those who needed a helping hand. He was proud of his time serving our country and had many stories to share with his family. During Lionel's time in the Army he was proud to have been chosen as driver for General John H. Church during the Korean war. Lionel was awarded UN Service Medal, National Defense Service Medal, Republic of Korea President Unit Citation, Korean Service Medal, 4 Bronze Stars, and L. Clasp to GGM plus more.

A catholic mass service will be held at Holy Rosary church, aka Parish of the Precious Blood, 31 Thomas Avenue in Caribou on Friday 9/25/15 at 11:30 am. Attending priest is Reverend Kyle Doustou. Lionel's burial will follow at the V.A. Cemetery in Caribou at 1:00 pm. And reception for all at the VFW hall in Caribou, located near the cemetery. In lieu of flowers, donations in memory of Lionel would be greatly appreciated and can be sent to Parish of Precious Blood, P.O. Box 625, Caribou, 04736. Donations can also be sent in memory of Lionel Paradis to Maine Veteran's Home, 44 Hogan Rd., Bangor, ME 04401. Lionel's family would like to thank the Veteran's Home (Unit B) nurses, Diane, Merlita, Allison, Tanya & Keri for their loving care during his time living there. Your devotion to love and care for the veterans is act of mercy that should be told to many. Thank you from the hearts of Lionel's family.
