PAUL D. PORTER

NEW LIMERICK - Paul D. Porter, 81, passed away in his sleep January 15, 2015.

He was born in Houlton on February 17, 1933, the son of Herman and Mary Ellen Robinson Porter.

Paul was valedictorian of the Class of 1951 at Houlton High School. He earned a degree in mathematics from Bowdoin College where he was a member of the R.O.T.C. program, graduating as a 2nd Lieutenant in the U.S. Army. Following graduation he served two years active duty as a Signal Corps Officer at the Tobyhanna Signal Depot in Pennsylvania.

Following that assignment Paul taught math for two years at Houlton High School, before securing a grant from the National Science Foundation for a summer session at Bowdoin and then a year long grant to complete his masters in education degree at Brown University. He then embarked on a distinguished 38 year-long career at Lawrenceville School; a private day and boarding school in New Jersey. He was chairman of the math department for 13 years, dean of studies and assistant dean of students. Paul received the Master Award for outstanding teaching.

One special interest for Paul was the Lawrenceville School Camp for under privileged children that is more than 100 years old. Paul was honored to have the athletic field named, "Porter's Field" for his longtime dedication and interest in children.

During his teaching career he participated in three sabbaticals, spending time in Europe, Hawaii and an adventure of a life-time, sailing

RICHARD D. SPINNEY

BANGOR - Richard D. Spinney, 72, died Jan. 15, 2015 at his home in Bangor from complications of Frontotemporal Degeneration. He was born January 5, 1943 in Old Town to Olive (Durrant) and George Spinney, a Red Sox player.

He was one of triplets. One died at birth and he was predeceased by his brother, Robert in 2012. Richard worked for many years as a drug and alcohol counselor at the Brattleboro Retreat, EMMC and at the Hope House. He was a shark pool and card player and he enjoyed watching the Red Sox, Patriots and Seinfeld. Richard was known for his wit and gregarious personality. After his illness robbed him of language abilities he turned to nature, birds, music, and his companion cat, Dustin and he loved spending time at the Penobscot River.

He is survived by his wife, Maureen Walsh; a daughter, Morgan Spinney; a stepson, Major Matthew Holden and his wife, Brittany Holden. He will be remembered by his in-laws especially Sheila Harris, Teresa Lagrange, Eileen Walsh, and Bill Eddy. A special thanks for those who cared for him during his illness including Dr. Ni-amh Holohan and her wonderful staff, New Hope Hospice and The Association for Frontotemporal Degeneration who listened and offered support.

DOLORES "DODY" E. CARR

BANGOR - Dolores "Dody" E. Carr, 80, went home to be with the Lord on Monday, January 12, 2015, at her son's home in Otis, surrounded by her loving family.

She was born on May 13, 1934, the daughter of Herbert and Mary (McLeod) Davies. She married Homer Carr in 1953 and they shared 60 wonderful years together.

Dody lived her life for her Lord, her family and her church. She was a member of Glad Tidings Church in Bangor and was an attendee for over 70 years. She taught Sunday School to the two and three year olds for many years, faithfully assisted in the kitchen, helped prepare weekly communion and assisted in preparing for several water baptisms. She and Homer had a daily devotional life together and would not go about their daily routine until they had spent time with the Lord.

Dody was so very proud of her granddaughter, Jenna. They shared a very special bond. She was delighted when her family started their business, Dirigo Counseling Clinic, and was their most faithful promoter. She was a loving wife, devoted mother and an adoring grandmother. Her life was lived for others and she will be lovingly missed and remembered.

She is survived by her husband, Homer Carr, of Bangor; children, Karen Algee and husband, Alan, Wayne Carr and Jill Peters and husband, Jody, all of Otis; granddaughter, Jenna Algee and her husband, Vernon Gigure, of Pawtucket, RI; her namesake niece, Dolores Gramley of San Antonio, Texas; and other nieces and nephews.

She was predeceased by her parents; brother, Herbert Davies; and sister, Sharon Davies.

A memorial service will be held at 2 p.m., Saturday, January 24, at the Glad Tidings Church, 1033 Broadway, in Bangor, with the Rev. Ron Morris officiating. A gathering will follow in the fellowship hall. All are welcome.

In Memoriam

In Loving Memory Of
HELEN "BETTY" TARR
Jan 19, 1942 - Aug 25, 2014
Tears instead of wishes.
Flowers instead of cards.
You left us precious memories that will stay forever in our hearts.
All of your loving family

Card of Thanks

The Family Of
BYRON FRED CARVER SR
The family of the late Byron Carver Sr. wishes to thank everyone who showed them kindness, love, and support during this most difficult time. It is truly a blessing to have the support of a wonderful community, family and friends. To the nurses at The Community Health and Counseling and the volunteers at Down East Hospice, we could not have gotten through this without your support. Thank you to everyone who sent a card, spoke, or told a story, and there were many stories and to all who sent generous donations to the Down East Hospice in his memory. A special thank you to Pastor Phyllis Merritt, who always knows just what to say and to the Ladies of the Hand in Hand Christian Fellowship, who cooked and served the wonderful food for us. It truly helps to know how much love and admiration everyone had for our Dad.

GOD BLESS YOU AND
THANK YOU ALL
Byron, Darlene, and Family

DOROTHY L. (JONES) SMITH

ORONO - Dorothy Louise (Jones) Smith, 95, died January 16, 2015 at her daughter's home in Milford after a brief illness. She was born in Brownville on December 21, 1919, the daughter of William Nelson Jones and Florence (Bridges) Jones.

After graduating high school, Dorothy worked at the Chalet in Orono, where she met a gentleman named Philip Smith. They were married on her birthday in 1940. She then spent her time being busy raising her family. She belonged to the American Legion Auxiliary in Orono for 32 years and she belonged to a group of people called the Nit Wits.

The family would like to thank Hospice of Eastern Maine, Dr. Ritter, and hospice nurse Cheryl for their wonderful care of our mother.

Dorothy is survived by her daughter Sandra Moon and husband Carl; 3 sons, George Smith and wife Anne, Stephen Smith and wife Janet, and Philip Smith and wife Cynthia; 11 grandchildren; 19 great grandchildren; 2 great great granddaughters; 1 step great granddaughter; and several nieces and nephews. In addition to her parents Dorothy was predeceased by her sisters Glenwood Michaud and Winona Levasseur; and her husband Philip in 1999.

Friends and relatives are invited to a memorial service Saturday January 24 at 10AM at the Orono Chapel of Brookings Smith, 72 Main Street, Orono. Those who wish to remember Dorothy in a special way may make gifts in her memory to Hospice of Eastern Maine, 885 Union St., Suite 220, Bangor, ME 04401.
