NORA LOUISE "MARSH, CUMMINGS" REISS

PEABODY, MA - Nora Louise "Marsh, Cummings" Reiss passed away at Pilgrim Rehab & Nursing Center, Peabody, MA on Monday, January 25, 2016. Born Nora Louise Marsh of Greenville, Maine. She was the last surviving member of the Marsh family, Marsh Farm Road, in Greenville, Maine.

Nora is survived by four children: Sheila Dubiel and her husband Steven; Sharyn Kelly and her husband Stan; Byron Cummings and his wife Ginny, Brenda Gunther and her husband Bob and multiple step children, including Chris and Karen Reiss. 10 grandchildren: Martin Grenier and his wife Pam; Justin Kelly and his partner Mike Gauthier; Ryan Kelly and his wife Sara; Sean Kelly and his wife Michele; Adam Kelly and his partner Caroline Martin; Greg Cummings and his wife Katie; Kerry Cummings and his wife Jen; Robbie Gunther, Megan Gunther, Tiffany Reiss and Tyler Reiss.

Nora was predeceased by her 1st husband Byron L. Cummings, her 2nd husband Richard Reiss and her granddaughter Mona Grenier. Nora had 7 Great grandchildren: Thomas Grenier, Joshua Grenier, Ryan Kelly II, Emily Kelly, Julia Kelly, Ashton Kelly and Morgan Kelly.

Nora, known as Louise Cummings in the 1970's and 1980's was a very popular bartender at the Allenhurst Restaurant in Danvers, MA and the Daniel Fuller House Restaurant in Middleton, MA. When she changed jobs, the new business would advertise "featuring Louise" in the newspaper and all her patrons would follow. She had a gift of entertaining her customers with funny jokes and had the reputation of being the best bartender on the Northshore. Her gift to entertain didn't stop when she entered the nursing home. She sang songs and knew all the words of the 40's, 50's, and 60's music by heart, which amazed many. She loved her music. She sang in the choir at the nursing home. And many at Pilgrim looked forward to hearing her sing.

Nora loved yard sales, Pepsi, spinach pie and Boston creme donuts. She was very loving to her entire family. She will be greatly missed.

Visiting hours will be held at the Campbell Funeral Home, 525 Cabot Street, Beverly, Thursday, January 28, 2016 from 5 to 7 pm. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in her memory to the Dementia Society of America, 8 Atkinson Dr, Doylestown, PA 18901. ### KELLY THIBODEAU

FREEPORT - Kelly was born in Rumford, ME on August 31, 1961 to the late Lee and Virginia (Smith) Hutchins, the same day her late sister Jill was born six years earlier. Kelly passed away peacefully on January 25 at Gosnell Memorial Hospice House in Scarborough due to Myelodysplastic Syndrome as a result of chemotherapy treatment she received for breast cancer two years earlier.

Kelly and her family made their home in Bethel, ME where she attended the local schools. Growing up in that beautiful, rural town was a happy life for her. She and her friends would play outside all day, every day making up new games as they went along. When the days ended, they would gather in the Hutchins' kitchen for "Ginny's" ever present homemade pies, cakes, cookies and more. She learned much about nature from her dad while walking in the woods or trekking to one of the many special fishing holes. Winters were spent skiing, snow shoeing and skating. As a student, Kelly excelled academically and in athletics. She especially loved field hockey where she played the grueling position of sweeper. She was also a member of the field and track team, and despite her small size, she often medaled in shot put and high jump.

Kelly attended Husson College in Bangor, ME, living with her brother Mark, his late wife Pamela (Douglass) Hutchins and their daughters earning her Medical Assistant degree. She settled in the Portland area where she was employed by Allergists Marguerite Pennoyer, MD and the late Doris Pennoyer, MD, for 27 years until her death.

On October 23, 1993, she married her soul mate, Michael Thibodeau. They welcomed their precious son Landon into their lives August 13, 2001. Kelly very much enjoyed gardening - starting seedlings in her greenhouse. Her vegetable and flower gardens were the envy of the neighborhood. In all seasons, Kelly enjoyed spending time at the pond near their home with Mike, Landon, and their neighborhood friends, swimming, boating and skating.

She is predeceased by her brother-in-law Gilbert "Biff" John Lea; and her father-in-law Fernand Thibodeau. She is survived by her husband, Michael, her son Landon; her brother Michael Hutchins and wife Janis; her brother Mark Hutchins; her mother-in-law Edwina Thibodeau; brothers and sisters-in-law David and Bobbie Morrow; Clud and Gill Cyr; Linda Chalou; Ted and Marlene Johnston; Nola Thibodeau and many nieces, nephews and their children.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Ovarian, Melanoma, and Breast Cancers and Lymphoma/Leukemia foundations.

A Memorial service will be held for Kelly at Funeral Alternatives, 25 Tampa St., Lewiston, ME on Saturday, February 6 at 10 Am. All are welcome to gather at 9 Am for visitation prior to the service.

Services are under the direction of Funeral Alternatives 25 Tampa St., Lewiston, ME www.funeralalternatives.net

EUNICE MORRIS

WARWICK, RI AND BANGOR - Eunice Morris, 94 of Warwick, Rhode Island (formerly New York) passed away on January 26, 2016. Born in Bangor, Maine, she was the wife of the late Buddy Morris and daughter of the late Jacob and Alice Cohen.

She is survived by her adored daughter and best friend, Robin Morris (Tom Welcome) of Warwick, R.I., and beloved sons, Scott Morris (Lisa Tobin) and Jimmy Morris of New York. She also leaves her grandchildren, Kevin Morris (Emily) and Jeffrey Morris of Indiana, and Lindsay Morris of New York. She shared her life with four special friends, Maureen, Sandra, Sabrina and Eileen, who enriched her days with loving care. She is also survived by her devoted cat and guardian angel, Willow.

She was predeceased by her siblings, Ada, Nathan, Pauline, Mae, and Sylvia.

Eunice was a graduate of the University of Maine, and held administrative positions in the real estate and insurance industries. In retirement she found her calling in volunteerism, receiving both local and national recognition. She was the recipient of the Health Care Financing Administration's Certificate of Merit for outstanding work on behalf of the Rhode Island Department of Elder Affairs. She served on the AARP State Leadership Team and the Economic Security and Health and Long Term Care Action Teams, as well as a Board Member of Cranston AARP Chapter #3418. She served as a tax counselor and instructor specialist for Tax-Aide, an Advisory Board member for the Women's Financial Information Program, a CASA volunteer for at risk children, and host and member of the production team for cable program Senior Journal.

She will be deeply missed by her loving children with whom she shared a unique and special bond, and everyone she touched with her sweetness and magical smile.

Graveside services will be held 2 p.m. Thursday, January 28, 2016 at Beth Israel Cemetery, Bangor.

At the family's request donations may be made in her memory to St. Jude Children's Hospital 262 Danny Thomas Place, Memphis, TN 38105-3678 or Best Friends Animal Society 5001 Angel Canyon Road, Kanab, UT 84741 There will be a remembrance service in Rhode Island at a later date, to be announced by the family.

Condolences to the family may be expressed at www.BrookingsSmith.com.

Legendary NASCAR broadcaster Barney Hall dies at 83

BY DAVID SCOTT
THE CHARLOTTE OBSERVER

Legendary NASCAR broadcaster Barney Hall died Tuesday after complications from a recent medical procedure. He was 83.

"The entire NASCAR family extends its condolences to the family, friends and fans of Barney Hall, a NASCAR broadcasting giant for more than 50 years," NASCAR chairman Brian France said in a statement. "Barney's impeccable delivery and incredible storytelling skills left an indelible mark on the sport that he so clearly loved."

Born in Elkin, N.C., in 1932, Hall began his career at local radio stations around North Carolina. After a stint as the public address announcer at Bristol Motor Speedway, Hall called his first Daytona 500 in 1960. He joined the fledgling Motor Racing Network in 1970 and spent the rest of his career there until retiring in 2014.

Hall's folksy style and story-telling ability set him apart from other announcers.

"For many of us in the racing and broadcasting industries, Barney was more than just 'the voice' who brought us the NAS-

CAR action each week on the radio," MRN president David Hyatt said in a statement. "He was an inspiration, a teacher and mostly, a friend. Barney was a consummate professional whose style and honesty made him one of the most revered voices of the sport and perhaps the most trusted reporter of his day.

"In a world that can have its share of egos, Barney's humor and humility kept everyone around him firmly grounded. His smooth and easygoing delivery was the mark by which others were measured. His co-anchor, Joe Moore, once commented that 'Barney was the calming force in the midst of a raging storm and simply by listening to him, you knew there was safe passage through it.' "

The NASCAR Hall of Fame recently created the Squier-Hall Award For Media Excellence. Hall and fellow broadcaster Ken Squier were the first recipients.

"His legacy remains through an honor that rightly carries his name," France said. "It will remain a constant reminder of the skill and passion that Barney brought to his work."

NBA Hall of Famer Wanzer dies at 94

THE SPORTS XCHANGE

Basketball Hall of Famer Bobby Wanzer, who led the Rochester Royals to the 1951 NBA championship, has died at the age of 94.

Wanzer died Saturday at his home in Pittsford, New York, a suburb of Rochester. The death was announced by his family.

Wanzer, a point guard, was a college star at Seton Hall for two seasons before embarking on an NBA career. He was the 10th overall selection of the 1948 NBA Draft and played nine seasons before retiring.

He averaged 12.4 points and 3.6 assists in the 1951 NBA Finals as Rochester defeated the New York Knicks in seven games.

Wanzer was a five-time NBA All-Star and was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 1987.

—Oklahoma City Thunder guard Andre Roberson will be sidelined at least three weeks with a sprained right knee, the team announced.

Roberson injured the knee during Sunday's game against the Brooklyn Nets. He underwent an MRI exam on Monday and it was determined he will not require surgery.

—Sacramento Kings standout DeMarcus Cousins and Charlotte Hornets guard Kemba Walker were named the Western and Eastern Conference Player of the Week, respectively, for games played between Jan. 18-24.

Cousins averaged 36 points and 14.7 rebounds in three Sacramento victories. He scored a career-best 48 points in a victory over the Indiana Pacers on Jan. 23.

Walker averaged 34.8 points, six rebounds and six assists as the Hornets went 3-1. He tallied a franchise-record 52 points during a double-overtime win against the Utah Jazz on Jan. 18 and scored 40 points against the Orlando Magic on Jan. 22.

—The Memphis Grizzlies reassigned forward Jarell Martin to the Iowa Energy of the D-League.

Martin, 21, was the 25th overall pick in the first round of the 2015 NBA draft following his sophomore season at Louisiana State. The 6-foot-10, 239-pound Martin has logged nine minutes with the Grizzlies over the first two games of his NBA career.
