In Memoriam

In Loving Memory Of
DOUGLAS E. PARTRIDGE
Nov 25, 1957 - Apr 25, 2009

It has been seven years without my better half. I miss all the times we spent with friends and loved ones. But most of all I miss the quiet times, holding my hand and talking about all the blessings in our lives. You always told me, "if something ever happens to me just know I've had a good life and love you so much." You made a good life for us all. Thank you for choosing me. Love always and forever, Love, Laura "Mrs. Doug Partridge"

Well Dad, seven years now. It hasn't been easy. Wish you were here to enjoy your grandkids. Each new step in our lives would mean so much more with you here. We are grateful though for all the steps before with you. Thanks for being our dad. Love so much, Erica and Eric

Doug, just know that having you was a blessing and a joy. We love and miss you everyday. Love, Mom, John and Ed

LAWRENCE "LARRY" F. KING

ELLSWORTH - Lawrence "Larry" Franklin King, 68, passed away peacefully on April 19, 2016 at his home attended by his loving family. He was the son of Eugene F. and Dorothy E. (Maddocks) King.

Larry was born October 20, 1947, the day of the Bar Harbor Fire. Right after birth, he and his mother were transferred to Hancock Point on the Sunbeam to escape the approaching fire. Thus began his love of boating, which continued over his lifetime, concluding with a surprise Christmas gift for Nancy - a Caribbean cruise in January, 2016.

Larry was raised in Bar Harbor in the village of Salisbury Cove. He graduated from Bar Harbor High School and attended University of Southern Maine and then moved to New Hampshire to work for Ingersoll Rand. After 5 years he had an opportunity to go into business with his father at Associated Builders. He was joined by brothers, Bob and Doug. Larry was very proud of his family's achievements and their business successes.

His decades of dedication to the City of Ellsworth began as a member of the Board of Appeals in 1976, and he served twice as Chair. In 1988, Larry was appointed to the Planning Board which he served until 1999, when he was elected to the City Council. He also led the Comprehensive Plan Committee from 1989 to 1992. During his seven years on the council, King was chairman from 2003 - 2005. He was a past president of the Ellsworth Chamber and the Ellsworth Rotary Club. Larry believed that you get out of the community what you're willing to put into it. He served the community in so many ways; often the contributions were private.

He is survived by his loving wife, Nancy J. Tilden King of Ellsworth; children, Jennifer King of Ellsworth, Kristen King and husband Shawn Mahoney of Florida, Troy Adams and fiancé Katie Feeney of Ellsworth; grandchildren, Cory, Caitlyn, Evan and Jackson; brothers, Robert King and wife Nancy of Ellsworth, David King and wife Lisa of Gorham, Jeff King and wife Jody of Trenton, Doug King and wife Tracy of Ellsworth; the mother of his daughters, Susan King of Ellsworth; two aunts, Alice Jordan of Ellsworth, Charlotte Wilson of Rockport, NY; an uncle, Stephen Maddocks of Fairfield; several nieces and nephews, and countless friends.

Friends may call from 5-7 PM, Friday, April 29, at the First Congregational Church of Ellsworth, where funeral services will be held 11 AM, Saturday, April 30. The family invites relatives and friends to share conversation and refreshments in the parish hall following the service. Interment will be at Woodbine Cemetery, Ellsworth, following the reception. Those who wish to remember Larry in a special way may make gifts to First Congregational Church of Ellsworth, 2 Church Street, Ellsworth, ME 04605, or to the Ellsworth Historical Society, 40 State Street, Ellsworth, ME 04605. Condolences to the family may be expressed at www.BrookingsSmith.com.

MAXINE H. JUDSON

INDIAN ISLAND - Maxine H. Judson, 80, died peacefully April 23, 2016 at a Bangor hospital surrounded by her family. She was born June 1, 1935 in Old Town a daughter of Mary Louise (Francis) and Raymond Paul.

Maxine was extremely proud of her family and her Native heritage, she came from a long line of basket makers and musicians. She lived in PA and CT for many years, returning to Maine in 1979. She was employed in Home Health and Hospice for Penobscot Nation or over 20 years. Maxine was always available to lending a caring hand; preparing meals for families that had none, hosting the Sisters of Mercy, giving rides to those in need; or rocking and cuddling any baby she could. She found a tremendous peace rocking an infant. She was an avid Bingo player. She enjoyed trips to the coast, and would complete the day with a Maine lobster dinner. Maxine's faith was paramount in her life and she was a communicant of St. Ann's Catholic Church, Indian Island, where she also served as a Eucharistic Minister.

She is survived by four daughters: Dottie Sockbeson and husband Albert Jr. of FL, Carol Morgan of Orono, Linda Socoby and husband Michael Sr of Indian Island, and Sue Preble and husband Tom of Bradley. Affectionately known as Ga by her grandchildren, Stephanie Ballesteros, Jessica Moores, Morgan Talty, Michael Socoby Jr., Jade Socoby, Lily Preble, Julie Preble, and Elizabeth Preble; 5 great grandchildren, Ernesto, Evalyn, and Elden Ballesteros, Joao Alves Jr., and Josie Moores; also surviving is a sister, Laurie Barnes; several nieces and nephews, and many close friends too numerous to mention.

A time of visitation and gathering will be held 10am - 12 noon Tuesday at St. Ann's Catholic Church, Indian Island, where a Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 1PM Tuesday April 26, 2016. Burial will follow at Tribal Cemetery, Indian Island. Memorial contributions may be made to St. Ann's Catholic Church c/o Parish of the Resurrection 429 Main St Old Town, ME 04468
