Discipleship Award for lifelong member of Grace church

BANGOR — Anna McCloskey, 98, will be awarded the Lifetime of Discipleship Award 2016 during the 10 a.m. worship service on Sunday, July 24, at Grace United Methodist Church.

According to the Rev. Gretchen Casey, McCloskey is a lifelong active member of the church. She was baptized there, attended Sunday school and youth group as a youngster and served as Sunday school superintendent multiple times.

She has been a member of United Methodist Women and Grace Circle. She has served on Administrative Council, SPPRC, Worship Commission and the Mutual Ministry Team for the Certified Lay Minister, serving as lector and lay servant and often substituting in the absence of the pastor.

McCloskey has participated in many Bible study groups and prayer chains, and has been active in church fairs, church dinners and fellowship times over the years.

With the exception of Sunday school superintendent, she participated in all of the listed activities until she was well into her 90s.

Outside the local church, she has participated in the Maine

Annual Conference, including attending district trainings; participated in the School of Missions; served on the District Committee of Ordained Ministry and on the Board of Ordained Ministry, Maine Conference; and has spoken about being a missionary in the United States.
