

OBITUARIES

EDGAR HARVEY DOUGLAS

STOCKTON SPRINGS, ME, and Idaho - Edgar Harvey Douglas passed away peacefully on Sunday, July 31, 2016, in Belfast, Maine, with family by his side at the age of 93. He was born on May 29, 1923, in Waterville, Maine, son of Roy and Mary Douglas.

One of five siblings, he attended schools in Waterville, Maine, and Groton, Massachusetts, before enlisting in the U.S. Army 83rd Infantry Division in 1943. Overseeing food service operations for his division in France, he met and married Paulette Meriaux on May 19, 1945, and brought her and her family back to the United States.

In the late 1940's Edgar acquired and operated the Red Top dairy farm and store in North Belgrade, Maine. He also obtained his license to become an Insurance Agent for Mutual of Omaha, a career he continued for 35 years, earning many awards as top salesman in Maine. In 1961, he purchased Whisperwood Lodge & Cottages in North Belgrade, which he operated with Paulette for 24 years while maintaining his very successful sales career.

Edgar had a passion and enthusiasm for life and lived it to his fullest. He loved pursuing challenging endeavors and had a zest for meeting new people. There wasn't anything that he set his mind to that he couldn't accomplish. He was the consummate storyteller and loved to relay in an engaging and descriptive way all the stories of the past and the friends he met along the way. He had a great love of horses early in life and was an avid horseman, acquiring and raising a variety of breeds which he then showed or raced in New England. His other hobbies included antiquing, refinishing furniture, cooking, gardening, fishing, hunting, listening to music, singing, dancing and even flying. He loved his pets, his family and life itself!

After Paulette died unexpectedly in 1989, Edgar wintered in Palm Bay, Florida, and spent the summers in the home which he built in North Belgrade, Maine. In 2001 he reacquainted with a childhood friend, Bernadette C. Roy Tilton, and married her on November 26, 2001, in Nashua, New Hampshire.

After a thorough study of the bible with Jehovah's Witnesses, Edgar came to appreciate the hope that one day he would be resurrected on a beautifully clean earth, free from sickness old age and death Revelations 21:3,4. Edgar and Bernadette spent winters in Boise, Idaho with one of Bernadette's daughters and summers in Stockton Springs, Maine, at French's Point with another daughter.

Edgar's engaging personality touched many hearts for which he will forever be remembered. He was predeceased by his wife, Paulette; and two daughters, Janette Young and Arlette Hatt. He is survived by his wife, Bernadette C. Roy Tilton; daughters, Colette Tilton and Suzette Douglas; grandchildren, Douglas Tilton, Kristi Bradley, Deborah Hatt and Timothy Hatt; ten great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews. In addition, he is survived by his wife's children, Bonita Brooks, Betty Bermensolo, Roland Tilton, Merle Tilton, Paul Tilton and Jeff Tilton; and their fifteen grandchildren, Crystal-Lynn Brooks, Jessica Brooks Brewer, Robert W. H. Brooks, Michael, Casey and Christopher Bermensolo, Kimberly and Daniel Tilton, Jamin and Heidi Tilton, Tiffany Toulouse, Vivian Tilton, Sydney and Kyle Tilton; and fourteen great-grandchildren ... all of whom he loved as his own.

A celebration of life will be held on Sept. 17 from 1-4 p.m. in the Dining Room at Whisperwood Lodge and Cottages, 103 Taylor Woods Road, Belgrade, Maine. This will be followed by a graveside military service at the Pine Grove Cemetery in Belgrade. Funeral services will be held on November 11, 2016, at 3 p.m. at the Kingdom Hall in Frankfort, Maine.

Edgar will be sadly and dearly missed by us all. In remembrance of Edgar and his love of animals, donation may be given to your local Humane Society in his honor.

"Vous etes toujours dans mon coeur"!!!

BRIAN SCOTT KING

BRADLEY - Brian "Scott" King, 51, died peacefully August 16, 2016, surrounded by his loving family, after a long, courageous battle with kidney disease. He was born December 19, 1964, the son of Gordon A. King and Barbara (Fanjoy) Pelletier. Scott was a beautiful Christmas present to the family.

He graduated from Old Town High School, class of 1983. Scott loved to build things, from cabins when he was a kid, to building homes for Bruce Hamel as an adult. He also loved listening to tunes while tending his herb garden, and what a crop he had these past few years! He was a loving grandfather, and uncle. He loved to brag about all the kids.

Scott is survived by his high school sweetheart, love of his life, and mother of his children, Carin Dionne; his loving children, Ashley Loring and husband, Jesse, and Bradley Scot King and wife, Amanda; and grandchildren, Klaire and Kail Loring, and Nolan King. He also leaves behind siblings, Vernard J. King, David P. King and wife, Cathy, and Rebecca King Flaherty and husband, Steven; stepsisters, Rebecca J. Willigar and Beth Austin; and stepbrothers, Stephen Pelletier and Thomas Pelletier. He will be missed by many nieces and nephews. Scott was predeceased by brother, Thomas A. King; stepbrother, Shawn Pelletier; and stepister, Carol Pelletier. A special thanks to Mark "Benney" Binnette and Steve "Killer" Guay for always being such a great friend to Scott.

A celebration of Scott's life will be held 1 p.m. Sunday, August 21, 2016, at the Old Town Elks Lodge, 37 Fourth St., Old Town. All who loved him are welcome. Condolences to the family may be expressed at www.Memorial-Alternatives.com.

ELLEN MARSH DELONG

BATH - Ellen Marsh De-long passed away June 19, 2016. Please join Ellen's family as we celebrate her life from 2-5 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 21, at Maine Maritime Maritime Museum, Long Reach Hall, 243 Washington St., Bath.

DAVID CUSHMAN JARVIS

BANGOR - David C. Jarvis, 72, died August 16, 2016, at a Bangor hospital, after a courageous battle with pancreatic cancer. He was born August 22, 1943, in Bangor, the son of Philip O. and Pearl (Cushman) Jarvis.

David graduated from Bangor High School in 1961, where he excelled in football and baseball. Following graduation, he attended the University of Maine for one year prior to joining the U.S. Army, where he was enlisted as a Delta Project soldier. Upon completing his military service, he attended, and graduated from the University of Maine, in 1968, with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration.

Upon graduation, he married Jeanne C. Violette of Bangor, and raised one son, Robert. David was a career accountant and worked as a financial controller for several local companies until finally establishing his own practice here in Bangor. During that time he was an active member of the N.A.A. (National Accountants Association) and was the Maine Chapter President in 1980. He enjoyed traveling with his wife, attending Maine Hockey Games and was very proud of the dozens of rose and flower gardens he created at their home in Bangor. Most of all, David's passion was trout fishing and he was proud to enjoy that with his father Philip; son, Robert; and brother-in-law, Nick.

In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by a brother, Philip O. Jarvis Jr.; and a daughter, Lori Jeanne Jarvis. Surviving in addition to his wife of 47 years, Jeanne C. (Violette) Jarvis, are his son, Rob Jarvis and his wife, Jaime, with whom David had a very special relationship, of Bangor; sister, Linda (Jarvis) Collins and her husband, Nicholas, of Brewer; several nieces, nephews, and special cousins.

Relatives and friends are welcome to attend Funeral Prayers and the Rite of Committal at Mount Pleasant Catholic Cemetery, Ohio St., Bangor, on Tuesday, August 23, 2016, at 10:00 a.m. Those who wish to remember David in a special way may make gifts in his memory to Project Healing Waters Fly-fishing, an organization dedicated to teaching veterans his passion of fly-fishing. Send to Jeff Spaulding 10 Pinewood Street, Orono, ME 04473. Condolences to the family may be expressed at www.BrookingsSmith.com
