CHARLES DAVIS RICHARDS

ORONO - Charles Davis Richards, 95, passed away Friday, October 16, 2015 at his home in Orono. He was born May 14, 1920 at the home of his maternal grandparents in Cumberland, Maryland the son of William Carl Richards, Esq. and Emma Ridgely (Wolfe) Richards. He was married for over sixty years to Kathryn E. (Rollene) Richards who predeceased him.

Charles was a graduate of Wheaton College, Wheaton, Illinois and received his doctoral degree from the University of Michigan. He served in the U.S. Army during World War II in various locations around the Pacific. In 1952, he accepted a professorship at the Botany Department of the University of Maine, Orono where he taught until 1982, retiring with professor emeritus status. He was a noted botanist and a member and president of the Jocelyn Botanical Society of Maine. During his career he was requested by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers to investigate the flora of the St. John River Valley at which time he found the Furbish Loueswort, an endangered plant species not recently identified in Maine. After retirement, he spent many years at his cottage on Great Wass Island in the Town of Beals, Maine, cultivating a most extraordinary flower and moss garden which was featured in several prominent magazines including Downeast Magazine and House and Garden. Charles enjoyed traveling with his wife Kathryn to many destinations around the world including Africa, Turkey, Great Britain, Australia and Hawaii.

Charles is survived by his five children and their spouses, Laurence D. Richards and his wife Jane of Richmond Indiana, Irene L. Inman and her husband Kerry of Abington, Pennsylvania, William D. Richards and his wife Donna of Scotia, New York, Donald R. Richards and his wife Stephanie of Bloomington, Illinois. He is additionally survived by 13 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren.

No funeral will be held but a gathering of family and friends will be held next summer to remember him and his legacy. In lieu of flowers the family would encourage gifts in his name be made to the Orono Public Library or the Jonesport Public Library.

EDWARD "TED" BURRY

MT. PLEASANT, SC - Edward "Ted" Burry of Mt. Pleasant, SC died suddenly of natural causes in Baltimore on Monday, October 18th. He died aboard a Stevens Company SC tugboat on which he served as a relief captain. His engaging personality was punctuated with a broad smile and a friendly greeting for friends and strangers alike. Throughout his life, he was a very kind and generous person.

Burry, age 45, was born in New Haven, CT and lived in Cheshire, CT for many years. He then moved to Fairhaven, MA. Ted graduated from Bishop Stang High School in Dartmouth, MA and attended The University of Maine before moving to South Carolina.

Soon after moving to the Charleston area he married Melanie Daniels, and they settled in Mt. Pleasant. The couple had two children, Colby, now 16, and Hannah, now 13. Their marriage ended in divorce, but they shared custody of the children and remained on cordial terms until present.

In addition to his two children, Ted leaves his father, Maxwell Burry and his wife Shirley, of Williamsburg, VA. Also remaining to cherish his memory are two sisters; Susan Burry Martin (Jay) of Derwood, MD and Sally Burry l'Anson (Lawrence) of Roanoke, VA. Also remaining are an uncle, John Bancroft and his wife Christina, who reside in Oxford, NY and Cuttyhunk, MA. He is also survived by his aunt Carol Burry Gage and her husband John Gage of Fairhaven, MA and Naples, FL. Ted had many cousins, nieces and nephews, and he delighted in family get-togethers.

Those who wish to make a gift in his memory are invited to do a good deed for another as Ted would do. The family will be committing Ted's ashes to the sea on Sunday morning October 25th. A memorial service will follow at 2:00 p.m. in the chapel at Seacoast Church located at 750 Long Point Road, Mt. Pleasant, SC 29464, (843) 881-2100.
