and Dennis Cross; his two stepdaughters Jacquelyn and Kem; nine grandchildren; and eleven great-grandchildren.

Alvin worked 30 years for the Bangor and Aroostook Railroad, from where he developed a lifetime love of everything trains. In the 1970s Alvin and his family operated the Bradford General Store, which became a community gathering place for friends and neighbors. The store was open 364 days a year and if you needed something on the 365th day he would open up for you. Loving father of five children, he was an active member of the PTA, local Grange and his community. After Alvin retired from the railroad he worked with the Katahdin Friends, Inc. providing clients rides to medical appointments. Alvin enjoyed traveling, meeting new people and making friends and he especially enjoyed playing Cribbage. Alvin was a regular at the Glenburn Cribbage Club every Monday night.

Alvin was true to the meaning of his name, he was "a friend to all." His family and many friends will miss his quick wit, twinkling eyes and smile.

A memorial service will be held 11am Saturday Oct. 31, 2015 at the Twin City Baptist Church at 559 North Main St., Brewer. A reception will follow, where condolences and memories will be shared.

MARY MARGARET BARTLETT LOCKE

BANGOR - Mary Margaret Bartlett Locke passed away peacefully on October 25, 2015.

Born July 29, 1930, to Frank and Irene Bartlett, Mary grew up on Little Cranberry Island, Maine. After grade school on the island, she attended high school at Saint Joseph's Academy in Portland and then graduated from Saint Joseph's College, West Hartford, CT.

For many years, Little Cranberry Island remained a special place for Mary to spend summers. During college, she would return to the island every summer to work at Harbor Tower. Mary also enjoyed performing with the "Wits and Nitwits," a theater group she started with childhood friends.

In 1956 she married Reginald Locke and they settled in Bangor. Mary and their three children would head to the island for the summer the day school got out and

DOVER-FOXCROFT — Veterans Day Tribute Sing-

Reginald would join them weekends.

For many years Mary was a primary school teacher in Bangor. In 1983 she began volunteering as an ESL teacher at Husson College. By the time Mary retired in 1995 she was the Director of the college's International Center for Language Studies.

Mary thoroughly enjoyed meeting students from all over the world and learning about their different cultures. She and Reginald also enjoyed traveling, especially to Mexico.

Mary is survived by her three children: Molly Sawyer, Marie and John Locke; grandchildren, Katy and Seth; great-grandchildren, Zackary, Rebecca and Spencer; and her sisters, Catherine Scoville and Frances J. Bartlett.

Special thanks to Dr. David Koffman, his assistant Jennifer and office nurses, St. Joseph's Emergency Department and Hospice nurses, home caregivers Patty and Lynn and neighbor Ben.

The family will have a service in the chapel Mary's father built on Little Cranberry Island next summer.
