DUDLEY W. CARTER

MILLINOCKET - Dudley W. "Babe" Carter, 87, husband of the late Anne R. (Picard) Carter, passed away Saturday December 26, 2015 at the Millinocket Regional Hospital after a short battle with cancer. He was born June 29th, 1928 in Millinocket, the son of Albert D. W. and Ethelyn M. (Morris) Carter.

Dudley attended Millinocket schools and joined the U.S. Navy in 1948. During his service he served aboard the USS General H.W. Butner (AP-113) and was present on active duty in support of the amphibious landings at Inchon during the Korean War. While in the service he traveled to North Africa, transited the Panama Canal and visited China, Korea and enjoyed a couple of extended stays at Pearl Harbor in Hawaii.

After completing his Navy service he returned to Millinocket and began his career working for the Great Northern Paper Company. After a few years working on the wood lot he began an apprentice pipe-fitter training program in a job that lasted for 35 years. After retiring from the GNP he continued to work as a contractor servicing and rebuilding paper machines at the two GNP mills, finally retiring after 42 years of service. He was a 50 year member of local #485 of the Plumbers & Pipefitters union.

In retirement he enjoyed visiting family and he and Anne maintained a winter home near Ft. Myers, FL where they were close to other family members and enjoyed the company of other friends from the mid-west and Canada. He also attended several reunions with Navy shipmates sponsored by the H. W. Butner Association.

He is survived by his sons Dudley Carter and wife Kathleen of Nashua, NH, Roland Carter and wife Linda of Merrimack, NH and step son Terry Picard and wife Donna of Chelmsford, MA. Four grandchildren and three great grandchildren. Brothers Duane Carter, Paul Carter and wife Maryann all of Millinocket, and sister, Mary Griffin of Presque Isle, ME. Also several nieces and nephews including Nathalie Bosse of Millinocket.

He was predeceased by his brother Melvin Carter of Middletown, CT and sister "Sis" Edwina Caron of Millinocket.

Dudley's family would like to thank the doctors, nurses and staff at the Millinocket Regional Hospital, Dr. Dunstan's office and at the EMMC's Lafayette Family Cancer Center for their kind and compassionate care.

In lieu of flowers gifts in memory of Dudley can be sent to the American Cancer Society at <https://donate.cancer.org/index>

An interment service will be held at the Millinocket Cemetery in the spring.

Arrangements are by Lamson Funeral Home, Millinocket. Messages of condolence may be expressed at www.lamsonfh.com.

ELEANOR MARY RILEY

BANGOR - Eleanor Mary (Provost) Riley died peacefully on December 27, 2015 surrounded by her loving family in her home on Webster Ave in Bangor. She was born on November 3, 1915 in Dexter, ME. She was the only daughter in a family of five children to Philip Joseph Provost and Delvina Mary (Clukey).

Eleanor was a 1935 graduate of John Bapst High School, a graduate of Beal Business College, and continued her education at the University of Maine. She was employed by the Social Security Administration and the Department of Agricultural Economics at the University of Maine. She was also a volunteer with the American Red Cross during World War II. Her next employment was as a civil servant with the Quartermasters Corps at Dow Field where she met and married her lifelong husband and best friend, Paul Lloyd Riley. Upon leaving the Air Force, Paul and Eleanor settled in Bangor and started their family. They were strong in their Catholic faith and were members of St. Mary's Church in Bangor.

Her family gave her the greatest sense of joy and accomplishment as she raised her three children with Paul. Maryann Sylvain, Susan Frances Riley and Kevin Paul Riley loved their mother dearly. She was the proud grandmother of six grandchildren, Amy, Shaun, Christopher, Erin, Hannah and Andrew, and three great grandchildren, Riley, Colton and Milo. She had special relationships with her sister-in-law, Alice Provost, her niece, Kim Provost, her daughter-in-law, Vicki Grant Riley, sons-in-law, Tom Stephens and Paul LaPointe and friend Jan Plourde. She is also survived by several nieces and nephews.

Paul and Eleanor built a family camp at Lucerne-in-Maine, where they spent many happy hours with their family and friends. She loved taking care of their camp and home, building rock walls and landscaping. She was an avid fan of the Boston Red Sox, competitive swimming, and the University of Maine Hockey Team. She had a great sense of humor and was not a stranger to hard work which allowed her to live 100 happy, healthy, independent years. Eleanor was predeceased by her beloved husband Paul in 2006, after 63 years of marriage. She was also predeceased by her four brothers. Eleanor recently celebrated her 100th birthday in grand style.

Family and friends may visit 9:00 to 10:30 AM Saturday, January 2, 2016 at Kiley & Foley Funeral Service, 299 Union St., Bangor. A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated 11:00 AM Saturday, January 2, 2016 after the visitation at St. Paul the Apostle Parish, St. Mary's Catholic Church, Ohio St., Bangor, with a reception in the church center immediately following. For those who wish, memorial contributions may be made to All Saints School, PO Box 1749, Bangor, ME. 04402 or the Bangor Humane Society, 693 B Mt. Hope Ave., Bangor, ME 04401. Condolences to Eleanor's family may be offered at kileyandfoley.com.

LEONA (LEE) CECILE MCMOARN

MOLUNKUS TWP - Leona (Lee) Cecile McMoarn, 75, went home to her heavenly family on December 27, 2015. She spent her final days surrounded by family and friends, passing on peacefully at her home in Molunkus. Leona was born February 3, 1940, in Chicago Illinois, the youngest of four children born to Cyrus Delano Nason and Jenny Elisabeth (Eckstrom) Nason.

She graduated from Paten Academy, class of 1958. During her senior year, she met and married a handsome sailor and the love of her life, Harold Nelson McMoarn of Sherman. They were married on February 15, 1958 in Benedicta. The young couple moved to Chicago where the family grew to include four sons. The family returned to Maine in 1972 and settled in Molunkus. A strong, indomitable, loving woman whose family and friends meant the world to her. Leona's friends were lifelong and she would do anything for them and them for her. Leona loved and was loved by many. Her home was always the center of gravity for family, friends and the neighborhood kids. Over the years she touched many lives and acquired many surrogate sons and daughters. She will be remembered by all for her love, kindness, and support. We shall miss her and love her forever.

Leona is survived by her four sons: Verne & wife, Phalia (Gramling), of Chester, Shawn & wife, June (Farrar), of Molunkus, Michael & wife, Patricia (Carroll), of Saco, and Scott McMoarn of Molunkus; Eight grand children: Jenny & husband, Wade Pezzullo, of Rumford RI., Maggie & husband, Ray Hutchinson, of Carthage, Colleen McMoarn of Chester, Shawn Jr. & wife, Sheena (Waltz), of Bangor, Valerie & husband, Ryan Prue, of Bangor, Travis McMoarn of Clifton, Lacy and Ashlee McMoarn of Portland; Seven great grandchildren: Enzo, Luca, Emilee, Irene, Tanner, Mason, and Phoebe. She was predeceased by her husband, parents, and three siblings Grace, Charles (Bud), and Florence.

A Memorial Mass will be held 11am, Sat., Jan. 2, 2016 at St. Benedicts Catholic Church in Benedicta. Spring interment will be in St. Benedict's Cemetery. To leave condolences please visit

WILLIAM G. TRAVIS SR.

BANGOR AND BREWER - William G. Travis Sr. of Bangor and Brewer passed away on December 22, 2015. He was born April 7, 1948, the son of Walter and Gertrude Travis.

Bill was a lifelong resident of Brewer and was in sales, starting with Pepsi, moving to Pillsbury and ending his career with Pine Tree Waste. In his early years, he worked part-time for the Brewer Police Department. He was a devoted family man, and was involved in all his children's activities such as being active in the PAL Program at the Brewer Rec, by assisting with coaching and refereeing multiple sports. He also implemented full uniforms for the farm league when he was President of Little League. He later became involved in his grandchildren's activities.

He loved cooking and entertaining, especially on Christmas Eve when family and friends came over to celebrate. His motto was "The more the merrier."

He was predeceased by his parents; his sister, Margaret "Peggy" Hall; brother, Walter "Buddy"; and brothers and sister-in laws.

He is survived by his wife of over 50 years, Marguerite "Maggie"; sons, William Jr. and Ronald; and daughter, Tracie Cochrane; grandchildren, Kara and husband, Derek Meader, Brian and wife, Katie Cochrane, Julia Travis and Ronald Travis; three great-grandchildren, Mythias, Darius, and Scarlett "Peanut"; brother, Kevin; and several nieces and nephews.

The family would like to thank everyone at Westgate Center for the care they gave to Bill, and the kindness and support to his family. Also, to Beacon Hospice for their assistance in caring for Bill.

Love you forever and always, Bill.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.
