

OBITUARIES

LARRY NORRIS PINEO

CORINTH - Larry Norris Pineo, 76, passed away following a brief illness on Tuesday, January 12, 2016, surrounded by his loving family. Larry was born on May 25, 1939, in Addison, to Norris Pineo and Margaret Davis Pineo Guptill.

He grew up in Columbia Falls and attended Columbia Falls High School, Washington State Teachers College and the University of Maine at Orono, where he earned advanced degrees in Education. Following college, he pursued his dreams and became a lifelong educator and education administrator.

He married Karen Drisko on April 29, 1960, and together they raised four children who were his pride and joy. Surviving in addition to his wife are children, Troy Pineo and Barbara of Corinth, Todd Pineo and Laura of Norridgewock, Tara Pineo Severance and Mark of Glenburn and Toby Pineo and Alecia of Hampden. Grandchildren include Tyler and Taryn Pineo, Melissa Russell and David, Rachel Monette, Emily and Andrew Pineo, Jillian and Jonathan Severance, Kip and Joshua Stanley and Alana and Abram Pineo. Two great-grandchildren include Quinn and Brynn Russell. Larry is also survived by his siblings, Lita Bagley of Columbia Falls, Marvin Pineo and Velma of Jonesboro and Vance Pineo and Hilary of Columbia Falls. Additionally, Larry is survived by brother-in-law, Hugh Drisko and his wife, Junita, several nieces and nephews and a few very special friends. He was predeceased by his parents; his stepfather, Ira Guptill; his in-laws, Keith and Donna Drisko; brother-in-law, Merton Bagley; and sister-in-law, Sharon Rolfe and her husband, Lyle.

There will be a private gathering at a later date. Arrangements are under the care of Bragdon-Kelley Funeral Home.

ELIZABETH ANN (OSBORNE) MOULTON

BRUNSWICK - Elizabeth Ann (Osborne) Moulton, 79, of Brunswick, Maine left the real world and moved on to a place where she can relax and dream good thoughts on January 14, 2016.

She is survived by her husband, Robert Sr., a daughter, Terry and her husband Dan of Lincolnville, ME, a son, Richard and his wife, Sharon of Durham, ME, and a son, Robert Jr. and his wife, Sue of Brunswick, ME.

Elizabeth leaves an extended family of ten brothers and sisters, including Francina Grant of Abingdon, VA., Frank Osborne of Industry, ME., and Margaret James of Strong, ME.

Elizabeth taught school at the Connor Elementary School, in Connor, ME. for twenty-five years. One of her final hopes was that all of her former students would take a moment or two to remember all of the wonderful times at school. She often recalled the butter making, the kick-ball games and how she liked to swing. She leaves a special "hug" for each and every one.

Condolences may be expressed to the family at www.FuneralAlternatives.net et. Arrangements are under the care of Funeral Alternatives, 8 Pleasant St. Brunswick.

DEANNA LOUISE ALLEN

BANGOR - Deanna Louise Allen, 48, passed away Jan. 13, 2016, at home, surrounded by her loving family after a courageous battle with ovarian cancer. Deanna was born March 21, 1967, in Bangor, ME, the daughter of Nancy and Douglas Hill.

Deanna lived in many different places throughout her life and made her home in Bangor in 1999, 3 years after the birth of her daughter Jenna. She graduated in 1985 from Bangor High School, where she was a First Chair trumpet player in the band. After returning to Bangor, she attended the University of Maine. She was an elementary teacher at Milo Elementary School, which was her dream job. Deanna enjoyed her students, riding her motorcycle, cardinals and watching the Bald Eagles hatch and grow online. Most importantly she loved her family.

Deanna is survived by her husband, Leamen Allen Sr.; daughter, Jenna Procise; mother, Nancy Hill and spouse, Madeline Gardner; brother, Jason Hill; special friends, Wendy, Val and Denise; and sister-in-law, Karen Ellis. She was predeceased by her father, Douglas Hill; and stepson, Leamen Allen Jr.

Graveside services will be held at the Riverview Cemetery in Bucksport in the spring of 2016.

TODD R. COCKLIN

ORRINGTON - Todd R. Cocklin, a loving father, devoted husband, son and brother, died January 13, 2016 after fighting a courageous three-year battle with an illness. He was 61.

Born, November 19, 1954, into a large family in Massillon, Ohio, Todd graduated from Massillon Washington High School in 1973 and afterward briefly attended Ohio State University. In 1978, he married Amy Welsh, whom he'd known since childhood.

Three years later, they moved to Maine and later made a home in Orrington, where Todd lived for 34 years. He was a successful master plumber, who for a time owned his own business, and eventually went on to work as a project manager for some of the region's largest mechanical contractors.

Todd was a golfer, who also enjoyed hockey, football, the outdoors and animals. From 1971-1973, he played as a center for the Massillon Tigers football team and was part of the 1972 Associated Press/United Press state championship team.

Todd's humor, independence and care for his family were noted by all that knew him.

He was predeceased by his mother, Jacqueline Cocklin, and his father, Roland Cocklin. In addition to his wife, Amy (Welsh) Cocklin, he is survived by his daughter, Stevie Cocklin of Orrington, and his son, Jamison Cocklin of Pittsburgh, Pa.; his two brothers; his sister and many nephews and nieces.

Relatives and friends are welcome to share in conversation and refreshments 3-5 pm, Friday, January 22, 2016 at the Family Reception Center of Brookings-Smith, 163 Center Street, Bangor. Condolences to the family may be expressed at www.BrookingsSmith.com.

JAMES D. COYNE

SOUTH PORTLAND - James D. Coyne, 87, of South Portland, formerly of Gray, Brewer and Hampden, ME died peacefully in his sleep early Christmas morning, December 25th, 2015.

Jim was born in Brewer, the son of Phyllis and James H. Coyne, graduating from Brewer High School and Husson College, where he enjoyed playing as a member of the schools' basketball teams. His career as an accountant spanned 15 plus years at both the Tidewater Oil Company and Diamond International Corporation.

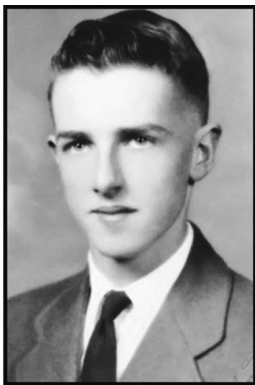

Following his service in the US Navy during WWII, Jim married his sweetheart Barbara I. Doherty in 1949 and they built a home in Hampden, where they raised their family and lived for 32 years. Jim coached Brewer Babe Ruth Baseball and was an active member of both the Hampden Jaycees and Brewer Recreation Organization (BRO), which sponsored Saturday night dances at the Brewer Auditorium with then 'famous' WABI Disc Jockey Jim Winters. Having a great love of and appreciation for dance and music, Jim attended big band concerts and musical theater productions throughout his life and he and his brother Terry sang and recorded music in their basement, as teens.

Jim, being a 'city boy' cherished memories of time spent with his brother-in-law, Don Everett, a 'country boy', who taught him the fine arts of trout fishing and deer hunting, which he pursued for many years, along with camping during summers with his family on the lake.

Role models who inspired Jim in his lifetime were a couple of individuals whom he highly respected and from whom he learned valuable life lessons. The first was Ralph Patterson, his father-in-law and the second, Hollis Winchester, his supervisor at the Tidewater Oil Company.

Upon retirement, Barbara and Jim built a home on Little Sebago Lake, to be closer to their children, grandchildren and relatives. There Jim became a proud member of the Gray American Legion Post #86 and was Treasurer of the Little Sebago Lake Association for 8 1/2 years. He and Barbara worked 8 Christmas seasons for LL Bean, spending the additional winter months at a home they owned in coastal Florida.

At the Betsy Ross House, where he lived for the past 9 months, Jim enjoyed the Veterans' and Book Clubs and weekly card games, and will be fondly remembered by friends there as 'The Music Man'.

A cherished highlight of this past year was Jim's May trip to Washington DC, accompanied by his son Gary and arranged by his children through the 'Honor Flight Maine' program honoring veterans in taking them to see their World War II monuments at our nation's capital.

Deeply loved by his family, Jim will be greatly missed and remembered for his humor and wit, devoted love and support of his family and community, strong work ethic, his integrity and generosity towards his children and grandchildren and for his support of numerous public television/radio networks and charitable causes. In particular, he gave generous monetary gifts to Boston's Dana-Farber Cancer Research Program and to South Portland's Cancer Community Center, where his wife Barbara received support during her courageous battle with ovarian cancer. Experiencing the Depression years had a strong impact on Jim and he always felt a compassion towards others who might be hungry, prompting him to donate to area food banks during the Holiday season.

Jim was predeceased by his beloved wife Barbara of 53 years and adored daughter Jeanie and siblings Rita Aiken, Paula Bracy, Terrence Coyne and Roberta Deane. He is survived by daughters Caron Bryan of Portland and NYC, Terry and her husband, Roger Agnese of Freeport, son Gary Coyne and his fiancée, Melissa Aylward of Bryant Pond, grandchildren Justin and Joshua Bryan of Boston and Griffin Agnese of Freeport, sisters-in law Nancy-Ann Blodgett and her husband Donald, Mary-Jane Preble and her husband Charles, Sally-Lou Patterson, and several nieces and nephews.

Jim will be laid to rest following a graveside Military Honors Ceremony/Salute at noon on Saturday, May 7th, 2016 at the Locust Grove Cemetery in Hampden beside his wife Barbara. Relatives and friends are invited to attend the graveside ceremony and a 'Celebration of Jim's Life' that will follow at the home of Sandra and Ken Preble, 18 Hamel Avenue, Hampden, Maine 04444.

In lieu of flowers, the family wishes that donations be sent in Jim's name to The Cancer Community Center, 778 Maine Street, South Portland, ME 04106.
