ANNA (CAMPOLATTANO) SIMONE

PROVIDENCE, R.I. - Anna (Campolattano) Simone, affectionately known as 'Nana' to her seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren, passed away early on March 7, 2016, after 96 years of a full and "wonderful life."

A devoted and loving mother of five, famous for her Sunday gravy with braci-ole, Anna was a gentle, generous and compassionate soul whose love for others knew no bounds; there was no stranger she would not open her home to, nor guest she would not feed. Anna was born and raised on Federal Hill, Rhode Island, and worked for many years serving the RI Department of Children, Youth, and Their Families (DCYF). Though she was married for 25 years to the late Valentino R. Simone, MD, Anna was no doubt the matriarch of her household.

Anna was predeceased by her sons, Jay Allen and Dr. Stephen S. Simone; and her daughter, Josanne N. Simone. She is survived by her youngest son, Dr. Kenneth G. Simone; and her eldest daughter, Valerie A. Poe.

Visitation will be held Saturday 8:30-10:15 a.m. in the A.A. Mariani & Son Funeral Home, 200 Hawkins St., Providence, R.I., follow by a Mass of Christian Burial at 11 a.m. in St. Augustine Church 639 Mt. Pleasant Ave., Providence, R.I. Burial at St. Ann Cemetery, Cranston, R.I. Donations in Anna's memory may be made to the American Cancer Society, P.O. Box 22478, Oklahoma City, OK 73123.

CLARENCE W. RYDER

VEAZIE & GREENVILLE - Clarence "Bub" Winfield Ryder, 85, passed away peacefully on March 8, 2016, surrounded by his family. He was born in Greenville on March 4, 1931, to Freda Beckwith and Charles Winfield Ryder.

He was predeceased by his sister, Norma. He is survived by his loving wife of 61 years, Donna; their sons, Michael and his wife, Megan; Robert and his former wife, Elizabeth; his grand-children, Brandon, Casey, Carolyn, and Chad; his sisters, Mary Genest and Vella Crossman; and his niece and nephews.

Bub was a graduate of Greenville High School, Class of 1949, where he was known for his athleticism in football, basketball, and baseball. He enlisted in the U.S. Navy and when he was honorably discharged, he became an exemplary crane operator with the International Union of Operating Engineers, Local 4 of Boston, of which he was a proud member for 62 years.

In their retirement, Bub and Donna spent time with family and friends at their camp on Moosehead Lake, Florida, and their home in Vezzie. They enjoyed traveling with his lifelong friend, Jim McNaughton and wife, Mary, of Coronado, California. Above all he loved his family. He will be remembered for his kindness, love, and generosity.

Memorial visitations will be held 4pm to 6pm Saturday, March 12, 2016, at the Lary Funeral Home, located in the Masonic Hall, Greenville, ME. Spring graveside services will be held at Greenville Cemetery. Those who wish to remember Bub in a special way may contribute to the Bangor Humane Society, 693B Mt. Hope Ave, Bangor 04401, or to a charity of their choice. Condolences to the family may be expressed at www.laryfuneralhome.com.

HERMON - Robert (Bob) L. Hamel, 76, born Dec. 14, 1939, and formerly Orrington, died March 5, 2016, at Maine Medical Center, Portland, surrounded by family and friends after a brief, unexpected illness. He was the son of the late Gladys and Vernon Hamel, raised in Hampden, and was the husband of Ann Marie Clifff.

He attended University of Maine, where he achieved a bachelor's degree in civil engineering. Bob supervised many road construction projects, most recently in the Ellsworth and Bar Harbor areas. Despite an earlier injury he sustained during a chainsaw accident, Bob found satisfaction and joy from tree and woodcutting. He will be remembered for his white cowboy hat and boots and his well-honed cribbage "lessons," spending hours playing cards with his special, lifelong friend Walter, and afternoon cribbage games with a dedicated cribbage group at the Bangor Senior Center. He loved the mountains of Wyoming and the coast of Maine, and recently enjoyed a mountain goat hunting trip in Wyoming. He adored hosting family lobster feeds every summer in Maine. "Mr. Hamel" will be fondly remembered by his former neighbors Ron and Brenda Vaillancourt. His grandchildren have countless special memories of their Grampy and Papa. Bob and Ann shared many wonderful traveling memories in his last years that brought him much joy.

He is survived by his wife, Ann Marie Clifff; and her sons, Lee and his wife, Diane, Terry and his wife, Colleen, and Dan and his wife, Karen. He is also survived by his sons from a previous marriage, Doug and his wife, Carolyn, Scott and his wife, Linda, Michael and his wife, Shelley, Joseph and his wife, Farrah, all of WY, and Jon (Jack) and his wife, Cindy, of CO. He is also survived by his stepchildren of his late second wife, Joan Hamel: Eric and his wife, Karyn, of NY, Todd and his wife, Amber, of TN, Amy and her husband, Chris, of MA, Mark and his wife, Diane, and Kathy, all of ME; many loving grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He is survived by one brother, Charles and his wife, Pam, of ME. He was compassionately and skillfully attended to by the staff of Maine Medical Center for which the family is very grateful.

A private memorial service of family and close friends will be held in July. Contributions may be made to The Hammond Street Senior Center, 61 Main St., Box 4, Bangor, ME, 04401 or Maine National Guard Foundation Fund. Make checks payable to MENG Foundation Fund and mail to DVEM, Attn: Family Program, State House Station #33, Augusta, ME 04333 and write "Bob Hamel" on the memo line.

SYLVESTER 'RED' HANEGAN

HERMON - Sylvester "Red" Hanegan, 75, passed away March 8, 2016, after a long, hard battle with lung cancer. He was born in Bassfield, Miss., May 28, 1940, to Anastasia and Sylvester Hanegan.

After graduation he worked at several jobs until joining the Air Force. He was stationed in Charleston, where he met his wife, Betty. They lived in Mass. for ten years, finally moving to Maine to raise their three sons. He served in the Air Force and Air National Guard for many years. He was employed at Lincoln Pulp and Pater until he retired.

Red was predeceased by his mother and father; four brothers, Tim, Earl, Coleman and Martin; and one sister, Theresa. Red is survived by two sisters, Angie and Sister Cathy Hanegan; and one brother, Alfred. He is also survived by his wife and best friend, Betty; three sons, Phillip and Heather, Paul and Mitchell, and Jason and Kristin; five grandchildren, Ashley, Rachel, Katie and Meghan; and one grandson, Cooper. Red adored his family and will be greatly missed.

At his request, there will be no services. There will be a funeral Mass at St. Mary's Church in Bangor.
