

OBITUARIES

LEE C. BROWN

CHARLESTON - Lee C. 'Squeak' Brown, 49, passed away unexpectedly at his home in Charleston Dec. 21, 2014. He was born June 22, 1965 in Bangor, the son of Earl and Luella (McQuesten) Brown.

Lee spent his life in Charleston and attended Charleston schools, Foxcroft Academy in Dover-Foxcroft and graduated from Bangor High School in 1994. Throughout his three years at FA, he worked part time for Barry and Mary Higgins milking cows and general farm work. He enjoyed this work and continued this throughout his life. In recent years if Lee wasn't delivering newspapers, he could be found doing landscaping, or caring for his wife or his daughter Roni or his grandfather Jack and his dogs. Lee enjoyed poetry, keeping abreast of the stock market, country music or dancing which he was excellent at or his favorite, spending time with the apple of his eye, his grandson, Eddy Bubar. He was an avid hunter and enjoyed fishing. Family and friends will remember Lee (Squeak) as a quiet man of great integrity, intelligent, passionate and a generous man of faith who could always utter the right words of advice for anyone in need. He was devoted to his family, friends and his community and will be greatly missed.

He is survived by his loving wife of 25 years, Katherine 'Molly' (Saunders) Brown; his daughters, Samantha King and companion Dustin 'Nutt' Bubar of Orneville and Veronica McLain of Charleston; his mother Luella Woodard of Wrentham, MA; his very special stepfather Stanley Woodard who raised him as his own of Dover-Foxcroft; his grandchildren Eddy, Haley, Lexi and Tessa of Orneville; special brother, William Sprague, with whom he had a special devotion, and his wife, Linda of Wrentham, MA; step brother, Tony Woodard of Milo; special sisters, Kelly Brown and her companion Joe of Eddington and Laurie Ann Woodard and her companion Jimmy Shorey of Dover-Foxcroft; grandfather, Marlon Feith of Levant; nieces, Nicole Jean Alexander of Auburn, MA, Rachel Sprague of Derry, NH, Natasha Emery of Milo, Britany Goodwin, Kyla Jean, Caoilinn Luella and Cliona Lee Sprague of Wrentham, MA; Kendra and Kayla of Dover-Foxcroft; Mandy of Guilford; Ashley and Amanda of Dover-Foxcroft; nephews, Joshua Sprague of Lisbon, NH, Joshua Goodwin, Caleb Emery of Milo, Dean Munson of Sangerville, Caius Spring, Keegan, Connor Sprague of Wrentham, MA, Antonio, Riley, Brody; in-laws, Harry and Gloria Saunders; special sister-in-law, Phyllis Emery and husband Dana of Milo, Mark Saunders and Laurie of Dover-Foxcroft, Dean Munson and Valerie Saunders of Sebec, Tracy Saunders of Milo, special sisters-in-law, Cindy Herrick and Dawn Munson; mother and father-in-law, Gloria and Harrison Saunders.

In addition to his father, Lee was predeceased by brothers Colin E. Brown and Arthur T. Woodard, a special niece, Jessica, two nephews, Tony Jr. and Douglass, grandfathers, Wallace H. McQuesten, Ernest C. Brown and John Munson whom he cared for the last 15 years prior to his death; grandmothers, Luella M. (Ordway) McQuesten, Virginia (Sprague) Feith and Katholyn Munson, great grandmother, Doris I. Kene (Leathers) Sprague, and a special recently deceased uncle, Wallace J. McQuesten. He will be sadly missed by many cousins, aunts and uncles and his best friend Robert Goodwin and his parents Annie and Gundy Goodwin.

Spring burial services will be held 2 PM Saturday, May 23, 2015 at the Puddledock Cemetery, Charleston with Pastor Robert Young officiating. All are invited to the Charleston Town Hall, on the School Road, following the service for a special luncheon. Arrangements are in care of Thompson Funeral Home, Corinth.

DORIS MARGARET CHRISTIE

CALAIS - Doris Margaret Christie, 94, passed into the arms of her Heavenly Father on May 14, 2015 at Marshall Healthcare in Machias. She was born Feb. 15, 1921 in Calais, Maine, the daughter of Thompson and Margaret (Glidden) McMorran.

Doris graduated from Calais Academy in 1938. She was employed at the Five and Ten until her marriage to Chester Christie. Doris had a quiet spirit and was content to be a full-time homemaker. She was a loving wife, mother, sister and grandmother. Doris enjoyed baking, swimming, sliding, skating and climbing trees with her grandchildren. Doris loved the Lord and was a member of Gateway Cathedral in St. Stephen, N.B. and later attended the St. Croix Valley Assembly of God in Calais.

Doris was predeceased by her brother Jack, her sister Marjorie and her husband Chester on June 3, 2010 after more than 63 years of marriage. Doris also lost her 18 year old great granddaughter Victoria Hope Smith on March 14, 2012. She is survived by her daughter Sandra Smith and husband Thomas of Alexander, two grandchildren Kevin and his wife Elizabeth of South Carolina and Tiffany and her fiancé Mark of Georgia, three great granddaughters Brooke, Emily and Anslee, several nieces and nephews, a cousin Sheldon Card of Oklahoma and her sister-in-law Betty Laking and husband Lawrence of McAdam, N.B.

A Committal Service will be held on May 22, 2015 at 1PM in the Calais Cemetery with Pastor Nathaniel Moore officiating.

Donations in her memory may be made to the St. Croix Valley Assembly of God in Calais.

DEANNA R. PEHRSON

INDIAN ISLAND - Deanna R. Pehrson, 66, passed away May 17, 2015 in Bangor. She was born August 7, 1948, in Old Town, the daughter of Wilfred Robert Pehrson Sr. and Joann Lollar.

Deanna was a very accomplished woman over the years. She worked for Penobscot Nation as a Trust fund coordinator; she then took on the task of becoming one of Bangor's best real estate brokers, receiving many awards over her years of service. Once she got out of the real estate business she then became owner and operator of D&D Timber Harvesting where she continued her success. Deanna also served on various tribal committees and she was an avid volunteer within the Indian Island community.

When Deanna wasn't enjoying her grandchildren and family, she had several different past times that she enjoyed; she was an avid poker player, she loved to travel, play bingo, and she enjoyed going camping.

Deanna is survived by her children; Delia Pehrson of Old Town, Melissa (Goodale) LeBretton of Indian Island, Philomene LeBretton of Si-payik, Sogum Francis of Si-payik; grandchildren, Alisha Wood, Brianna LeBretton, Devon Goodale, Tia LeBretton, Sydney Goodale, Matthew York, Meaghan Pehrson, Elizabeth Stagg; great-grandchildren, Silas Collette and Anthony Cogswell; brothers Dennis Pehrson and Wilfred "Junior" Pehrson Jr.; sisters Kathy Brown, Vicki White, and Nancy Denner. In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her son Tony LeBretton.

Time of visitation will begin 1pm Tuesday until time of Mass at 1pm Friday at St. Ann's Catholic Church Indian Island. A private burial will take place at a later date.

GILBERTE M. LANGLAIS

CUMBERLAND FORESIDE - Gilberte M. Langlais, 87 years old, passed away May 15, 2015 at home in Cumberland Foreside with her daughters Roxanne, Pat and Sandy at her side. She lived optimistically with cancer for two years with her usual zest for life.

Gil, as she liked to be called, was born Jan. 4, 1928 in Frenchville, ME, daughter of Patrick and Anna (Blanchette) Michaud. After graduating from Madawaska High School, Gil, went to work in New Britain, CT for a short while before returning to Maine. She met George Langlais in Waterville and they married in 1949. A woman of great faith, she was a past member of St. Joseph's Parish Altar Rosary and raised her family in Brewer, ME. She loved gardening and painting, and after her retirement from t University of Maine Chancellor's Office in 1985, she spent winters in Florida which she referred to as her second home. She enjoyed line dancing, cards, BINGO, water exercises, being a part of the Red Hats and loved it all.

Gil loved her family dearly and made friends easily wherever they lived and traveled. New Gloucester was her summer home for 14 years. She loved being a member of the ANGELS with the Maine State Music Theatre in Brunswick.

Gil's husband George of 58 years and her son Steven predeceased her. Siblings Martha Blanchette, Renaud, Ronald and Normande Michaud also predeceased her.

Gil was surrounded and will be sadly missed by her daughters Roxanne (Harvey) Wheeler of Cumberland Foreside, Patricia (Regis) Beaulieu of Turner and Sandra Wardwell (partner Ed Curtis) of Bangor; Cherished grandchildren - Beth (Stephen) Taglieri of Norwood, MA, Kate Nesbitt of Redondo Beach, CA, Amy (Darren) Bess of Alexandria, VA, Zach Beaulieu of Freeport, Luke Wardwell of Hampden, and Sam and Emma Liberty-Langlais of New Gloucester; Great grandchildren to whom she was a loving Mimi- Nicholas Taglieri and Wyatt, Liam and Cora Bess. Siblings include Lucia Daigle of Kensington, CT, Germaine Corriveau of Sinclair, ME, Aurela Legere of Sanford, ME, Weenie Collin of Bristol, CT, Norma Plourde of Ohio and CT, Theresa (Doug) Couture of Bristol, CT, Richard (Carol) Michaud of Middletown, CT, Sylvia Michaud-Kessell of So. Paris, ME and Sr. Juliette Michaud of the Holy Rosary Sisters of Portland, ME along with a special cousin Joanne (Bob) Hart of CT and FL plus many, many nieces and nephews.

Gil leaves quite a void in the lives and hearts of her entire family. She taught us all to live with a positive outlook and she will never be forgotten. In her words, "I've had a very good life! Cry if you must but celebrate my life! My spirit will always be with my family and friends."

The family wishes to give thanks to New England Cancer Specialists and Dr. Devon Evans, and also for the loving supportive care provided by CHANS Hospice, especially Jo-ellyn Sturgeon RN and the Home Health Aides.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated 11 am Saturday May 23, 2015 at St. Gregory's Church, 24 North Raymond Road in Gray. Father Daniel Greenleaf will be the Celebrant. Arrangements made by Wilson's Funeral Home in Gray.

Those wishing to remember Gil in a special way may make gifts in her memory to: CHANS Hospice, 60 Baribeau Dr., Brunswick, ME 04011.
