

OBITUARIES

AVERY VANCE CHIPMAN

BIRCH HARBOR - Avery "Pop"/"Gramp" Vance Chipman left this Earth on May 29, 2015 to meet his Lord and reunite with his beloved wife Estelle Church Chipman. He was born August 2, 1921 in Milbridge, the son of Edgar and Ella (Wilson) Chipman.

He moved to Bunker Harbor in 1940, having to quit high school and work to help care for his family. He married the love of his life on November 16, 1942, and they were married 71 years at her passing.

November 17, 1942 - the day after their marriage - Avery received a letter from Uncle Sam. He was drafted into the U.S. Army as an infantry man in company G of the 397th infantry regiment of the 100th Division. He was sworn in on November 26 in Bangor and went to South Carolina for training on December 11. Avery was away from home serving in the army for a total of 3 years, 1 month, and 2 days. As a WWII veteran, he had great love for his country and took pride in flying the flag.

Upon his return home in December 1945, Avery joined his wife and young son at his in-laws, and went fishing with his father-in-law. A piece of land was soon given to them, where Avery cleared a plot and framed up a house with the help of 2 older carpenters. Avery finished the house himself, so it was complete enough to move in September 9, 1947. Together, they raised four children there. Avery continued to lobsterfish, went Seining, worked on the Dow Air Force Base in Bangor, and became a gate guard at the Navy Base on Schoodic Point in 1963. There, he became supervisor and worked until 1981. He returned to lobsterfishing, retiring in 1986. In their later years, Avery and Estelle enjoyed playing cards, attending public suppers, and traveling around the U.S. and Canada. They were dedicated members of Birch Harbor Baptist Church, and cherished time at home with family and friends. He is survived by brothers, George and wife Rebecca, Herbert, and Albert and wife Betty; sister-in-law, Alice, and special sister-in-law Annabelle, all of Bunker Harbor; two sons, James, and Merton and wife Peggy; two daughters, Jean and husband Richard Bridges, and Susan Scott, all of Birch Harbor; grandchildren, Timothy and wife Marwa, Tammy and husband Lance, John and friend Michelle, Lisa and friend Arthur, Stephen and wife Tracy, Joshua and wife Megan, Crystal, Avery and wife Stacey; greatgrandchildren, Amanda, Jacob, Jessica, Joshua, Dakota, Mckenzie, Shelby, Serena, Brady, Jordyn, Blake, Grafton, Jedd, and Landan; great-great-grandson, Gabriel; step-grandchildren, Courtney and wife Melissa, Jasmine and husband Joe, Cindy Tracy, JR, Tammy, Michael, and Bobby; step-great grandchildren, Alan, Gerald, Kaitlyn, Brooklyn, Holly, Dunovan, Xavier, and Alexia; cousins, Martha and husband James, Ronald and wife Lori; four wonderful ladies who were like daughters, LaNeta, Cindy, Nancy, and Tammy Croyt; special people, Allison, deceased, Ron and wife Nancy, deceased, Jillaine, Cheryl, Craig, Joyce, Larry and wife Phyllis, "dear wife" Florence Dinsmore, Maxine, Michelle, Bill, Nicole, Elijah, Benjamin, and Elizabeth. Avery was predeceased by his wife, Estelle; parents, Edgar and Ella; step-mother, Minnie; brothers, Roger, Leamon, Vint, and Maynard; sister, Mildred; sisters-in-law, Doris and Kay, and grandson, Michael.

There will be no visiting hours. Services will be held 2 p.m. Saturday, June 6 at Birch Harbor Baptist Church, reception to follow at Masonic Hall in Winter Harbor. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Birch Harbor Baptist Church, 65 East Schoodic Drive, Birch Harbor, ME 04613.

LOWELL M. GUERRETTE

FORT KENT AND ST. FRANCIS - Lowell M. Guerrette, 62, died accidentally Friday May 29, 2015 at his Fort Kent residence. He was born September 19, 1952 in Eagle Lake, Maine the oldest son of Marcial and Hilda (Jandreau) Guerrette.

Lowell worked many jobs during the course of his life, but his most cherished work memories were driving truck. His labor of love was working at his home doing various projects and yard work. He had an untiring work ethic, and took the utmost pride in everything he did. He greatly enjoyed four wheeling with his wife and grandchildren looking for wildlife. Lowell will be fondly remembered for altruistically helping his friends and neighbors.

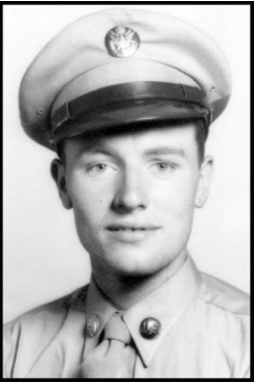

Lowell volunteered throughout his life to better his community and church. Amongst his many activities, he was former constable, firefighter, and moderator of the town of St. Francis, president of the St. Francis Snowmobile Club, member of the Parish Council of the St. Charles Catholic Church, and was a Fourth Degree Knight of the Knights of Columbus.

Lowell is survived by his loving wife of 39 years Alethea (Pelletier) Guerrette. He is survived by three children; Michael Abbott and fiancée Kimberly of St. Francis, Stewart Abbott and wife Melissa of Waxhaw, North Carolina, and Leslie Guerrette and husband Nick of Gray. Three grandchildren; Trey Paradis, Callie and Aries Plourde. Mother Hilda Guerrette of Fort Kent. Two sisters; Marsha and husband Arnold Pelletier of St. Francis, and Gaetane Blair of Newport. Sister-in-law Marie and husband Keith Hartt of St. Francis. Brother-in-law Charles Pelletier of Bangor, and several aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews.

He was predeceased by his father Marcial Guerrette, brother Lionel Guerrette, parents-in-law Claude and Marion Pelletier, sister-in-law Sherry Pelletier, and brother-in-law Robert Blair.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated 11 a.m Thursday, June 4, at the St. Charles Catholic Church, St. Francis with a luncheon following the service in the basement of the church. Those who wish to donate may do so in Lowell's memory to the charity of their choice.

GERRI W. MOORE

EAU CLAIRE, WI - Geraldine "Gerri" W. Moore, 62, died at her home on May 29, 2015. She was born September 28, 1952 in Portland, Maine, the daughter of Carl Nathaniel Moore and Phyllis Louise Perham.

Gerri was a devoted mother and nana, always supporting her children and grandchildren in all aspects of their lives. She was a dear friend to many and a respected colleague in her profession as a nurse and teacher. She was a faithful Christian and shared her faith and good works with many, both in her local community and in Juarez, Mexico. She lived an active and full life filled with people who loved her. She embraced adventure and enjoyed the outdoors: she was an avid road biker and completed many organized rides with the Chippewa Valley Pie Riders, as well as with friends throughout the United States. She also enjoyed kayaking, sailing, walking, traveling to many countries, and spending time with her children, grandchildren, and friends. She possessed a grace-filled spirit, practical wisdom, steadfast courage, and a loving heart that was strong as iron and tender as a cherry blossom. She will be dearly missed.

She is survived by three sons, Craig Dauphinee of Oceanside, California and wife, Misty; Deric Weymouth of Appleton, Wisconsin, and wife, Tara; Ryan Weymouth of Eau Claire, Wisconsin, and wife, Natasha; and three daughters, Clarissa Larry of Gilford, Maine, and husband, David; Stacey Schrader of Waupun, Wisconsin; Darci Westmoreland of Eau Claire, Wisconsin; and nine grandchildren, Aaron Walton, Alex Schrader, Keenan Larry, Aleena Nielson, Dylan Weymouth, Rhiannon Dauphinee, Livy Schrader, and Zaylee Weymouth. She also leaves a sister, Ginny Moore. She was predeceased by two very special granddaughters, Marissa Weymouth and Brittany Westmoreland.

The family extends a very special thank you to the caregivers at May Clinic Hospice and to friends who were there to assist her.

Funeral services will take place at 1 pm on Saturday, June 6, 2015 at Peace Lutheran Church, 501 E. Fillmore Avenue, Eau Claire, WI 54701. Pastor James Whatley will officiate. Visitation will take place at the church on Saturday morning from 11 am until the time of service.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be given in Gerri's name to International Justice Mission, Mayo Clinic Pancreatic Cancer Research, or Casas por Cristo

Friends and family may offer condolences online at www.fullerspeckienhulke.com.

Fuller Speckien Hulke Funeral Home, 3209 Rudolph Road, Eau Claire, WI 54701 is assisting the family with the arrangements.

ROBERT J. TAPLEY

MILLINOCKET - Robert J. Tapley died December 12, 2014. A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated 11 A.M. Saturday, June 6 at Christ the Divine Mercy Parish, 19 Colby St., Millinocket with the Rev. Bruce Siket, pastor, presider. Interment, with military honors, will be at the Millinocket Cemetery.
