

OBITUARIES

LAWRENCE L. DUNN

BANGOR - Lawrence Dunn, 92, died peacefully, July 15, 2016, at the Maine Veteran's

Home, with his family by his side. He was born in Milford, August 24, 1923, son of Willie L. and Alice J. (Pelkey) Dunn.

He graduated from Old Town High School and served his country in the US Navy during WW II as a Boatswain Mate 1st Class. He was assigned to the USS Housatonic, A035 and the USS Arcturus, serving across the Pacific and Atlantic.

Lawrence married Erlene T. Buck in Milford, June 14, 1947. They enjoyed 58 years together until she predeceased him in May 2005.

He enjoyed his work as an iron worker and was proud of his hard work on the Prudential Building in Boston, Ma. He was a longtime member of the Iron Workers Union #496. Lawrence enjoyed his time volunteering at the Maine Veteran's Home, Bangor and taking trips with the Senior Center of Bangor. He loved the outdoors, hunting, fishing, gardening and trying to outsmart the squirrels. Lawrence loved sports, especially the Red Sox. He had a great sense of humor and always had a great story to tell and a smile on his face.

Lawrence was the last surviving member of his siblings.

Surviving are his children, Greg Dunn and his wife, Karen, Deborah Snyder and her husband, Jeff, Laurel Roy and her husband, Danny, Aaron Dunn and his wife, Meredith; grandchildren, Jennie Ellis and her significant other, Brian Drisko, Jeremy Dunn, Kari Dudley, Kris Dudley and his wife, Jody, Kim Van Allen, Danielle VanAllen, Jillian Roy, Mitchel Dunn and Joseph Dunn; several great-grandchildren; nieces and nephews.

Graveside services with military honors will be held 2 p.m. Friday, July 22, 2016, at Maine Veteran's Memorial Cemetery, 163 Mt. Vernon Rd., Augusta.

Gifts in his memory may be sent to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, 313 Washington St., Ste.310, Newton, MA 02458.

Condolences to the family may be expressed at www.BrookingsSmith.com.

STEPHEN BRITTO AMES

ALBANY, LA AND BANGOR - Born in Bangor on Dec. 26, 1953, Stephen (Amos) Ames, son of Richard and Fern Ames, died on July 9, 2016.

Amos was a faithful and loving husband; true and loyal friend to those fortunate enough to hold him so; and above all, a wise and devoted father to his dearly beloved sons.

Amos is survived, and will be sorely missed by his wife, Penny Ames; sons, Patrick and Timothy, as well as many other loved family and friends.

Services will be held at 11:00 AM on Friday, July 22nd in Pinegrove Cemetery, Bangor. All are welcome to come celebrate his life.

JOAN T. TASH

CHESTER - Joan T. Tash, 80, wife of Arnold E. "Sonny" Tash, Jr., passed away July 16, 2016, at an Orono health-care facility. She was born July 23, 1935, in Eagle Lake, the daughter of Rene and Isabelle (Souci) Audibert.

Joan was an amazing wife, mother and grandmother. She worked as a dietitian at both the local hospital and schools. She was the fastest potato picker in Penobscot county. Joan enjoyed hunting and camping. She loved fishing and if she couldn't catch a fish, nobody could. She was loved dearly by many.

In addition to her husband, Sonny, she is survived by a daughter, Lisa Bayler; nine grandchildren, Shawn Lehman, Chris Tash, Seth Lehman, Arikka James, Lacey Schnepfer, Trevor Tash, Wyatt Tash, Quade Lehman and Reese Lehman; a sister, Mary Jacqueline Davis; 11 great-grandchildren, many nieces and nephews. In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by two children, Wanda Knights and Alan Tash; and many siblings.

Friends may call from 2-4 and 6-8 p.m. Thursday and 1-3 p.m. Friday at Clay Funeral Home, 7 Lee Road, Lincoln, where funeral services will be held at 3 p.m. Friday, with the Rev William Chesley officiating. Interment will be in South Chester Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, those who wish may donate to the Alzheimer's Association.

Condolences may be expressed at www.clayfuneralhome.com

EVA (TOWLE) SHERWOOD

HAMPDEN AND LEWISTON - Eva M. Sherwood, 95, passed away July 2, 2016. She was born October 3, 1920, in Old Town, daughter of Merritt Towle and Leona Beaulieu Towle.

A child of French Island, Eva swam in the Penobscot River and hunted and fished with her parents and cousins at the camp in Greenfield. French was a life-long second language. Eva was a graduate of Old Town High School and Maine School of Commerce (now Husson University).

In April 1941, Eva married Lowell Sherwood, the love of her life. Eva and Lowell celebrated their 74th anniversary together before Lowell's death in July 2015.

Lowell and Eva were equal partners, at home or office, but Eva was always the chief financial officer; she handled the checkbook!

In 1974, they sold their various businesses, and hit the open road. For 3 decades, they wintered in Florida and toured the country with friends in their Winnebago and camping along the Maine coast with grandchildren on summer days. In 1986, they built a home in Hampden near their sons so Papa could always be ready to help with a project and Gramie could spoil the grandchildren.

Eva is survived by two sons, Lowell Sherwood, Jr. and wife, Mary, Charles and wife, Rebecca; four grandchildren, Kate, Ben, Elizabeth, Jason; two great-grandchildren, Olivia and Spencer.

A very special thank you from Eva's family to the staff at St. Mary's d'Youville Pavilion (4 West) and Androscoggin Hospice for the extraordinary care and comfort given to our Mother and to the wonderful neighbors on George Street who were always there for Mom and Dad.

A Funeral Liturgy outside of Mass for Lowell and Eva will be held 10 a.m. Friday, July 22, 2016, at the Hampden-Gilpatrick Chapel of Brookings-Smith, 45 Western Ave., Hampden. Interment will be in Lawndale Cemetery, Old Town.

Condolences to the family may be expressed at www.BrookingsSmith.com.
