SHERWOOD D. MOODY

NEW LIMERICK - Sherwood passed away on September 23, 2015 surrounded by his wife and family.

Sherwood was born on June 12, 1937 in Houlton, Maine. He lived in New Limerick, Maine, and Ormond Beach, Florida. He also resided on East Grand Lake in Orient, Maine in the summer months. He was predeceased by his parents Doris Eagers Moody and George W. Moody.

He graduated from Houlton High School in 1955. He then attended the University of Maine graduating in 1960. While at the University, he built life long friendships with his brothers at Beta Theta Pi fraternity. After graduating from the University, he served in the U.S. Army and was honorably discharged in January 1963.

He is survived and loved by his wife of fifty years Nancy McIntosh Moody, his son George McIntosh Moody and his wife Jane Oliver Moody of New Limerick, Maine, and his daughter Ann C. Moody of Newburgh, Maine. Sherwood was blessed by his seven grandchildren; Margaret Moody of Bangor, Sarah Moody of Scarborough, Melissa Moody of Houlton, Autumn London of Bangor, Emma and Eli Wilson of Newburgh and Collin Moody of New Limerick, Maine.

He worked most of his life in the trucking industry for O'Donnell's Express and Sanborn's Motor Express in sales. He retired from the trucking industry after 26 years, and then went into the real estate business.

Sherwood belonged to the Houlton Lodge of Elks, the Masons AM & FM, and the American Legion. Sherwood also gave to the community as a member of the MSAD#70's school board for many years where he diligently worked to promote public education to benefit the students'.

Sherwood will be remembered for his many interests; predominantly hunting, fishing, and his love for the outdoors. He particularly enjoyed spending time with family and friends at camp on East Grand Lake. He also loved gardening, and avidly grew both vegetables and flowers.

Sherwood was a man of great strength and personal convictions. He had a genuine sense of self, and a wonderful sense of humor especially for those who paid attention. His way of sharing himself openly had a lasting impression on those around him. He will also be remembered for his love of life, and loyalty to friends and family.

Services will be held 2 PM Wednesday September 30, 2015 at the Church of the Good Shepherd in Houlton, Maine with the Rev. Ginny Urbanek officiating. Friends may call from 12:30 PM until time of service at the church. Interment with military honors will take place at the New Limerick Cemetery following. The family invites relatives and friends for a time of remembrance and refreshment at Watson Hall following the interment.

Things to Do Outdoors

ALTON — Full Moon Paddle, 5:30-7:30 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 26, Hirundo Wildlife Refuge, 35 Hudson Road. Canoes, paddles and life jackets available or bring your own. Meet at Gate 3. Reservations and cancellations requested by Sept. 25 by calling 394-2171. Bring flashlight. Suggested donations are $5 for adults; free for school-age children.

BANGOR — Burning Moon Eclipse Party for all ages, 8:30-11:30 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 27, Bangor Municipal Golf Course, Webster Avenue. Telescope viewing of the moon and stars during the total lunar eclipse and other celestial targets by Penobscot Valley Star Gazers astronomers. For information, visit gazers.org, where a weather-related cancellation will be posted if necessary.

BANGOR — Bangor Land Trust's Blood Moon Outing Sunday, Sept. 27, West Penjajawoc Grasslands, near the newly raised bat nesting boxes. Witness the supermoon total eclipse, which will occur beginning 9:07 p.m. with maximum coverage at 10:47 p.m. Bring a headlamp or flashlight, a chair, binoculars, bug spray, and good stories. Because of a reddish appearance, this phenomenon is often called the Blood Moon. From the Stillwater end of Essex Street, drive north about three miles, passing Chestnut Trail and taking your next right into the Hillbrook neighborhood onto Fox Hollow Lane. Stay on Fox Hollow Lane until you reach the cul-de-sac parking area at the end. A Bangor Land Trust kiosk marks the trailhead, just off this cul-de-sac. It's about a half-mile hike through the field to the nesting boxes. Markers will be in place.

BAR HARBOR — Car-Free Morning in celebration of National Public Lands Day, midnight-noon Saturday, Sept. 26, Park Loop Road, Acadia National Park. Free entry all day. Sections of Park Loop Road closed to private vehicles: Cadillac Summit road, road between Hulls Cove Visitor Center and Jordan Pond and the entire one-way section. Roads that provide direct access from Route 3 to the Hulls Cove Visitor Center, Schooner Head Overlook, Sieur de Monts and Jordan Pond will remain open. Island Explorer will be operating. Roadside parking will be prohibited at the Cadillac Mountain entrance on Eagle Lake Road (Route 233), and bicyclists will be required to ride only in the direction permitted on the one-way section of the Park Loop Road.

BLUE HILL — Join Blue Hill Heritage Trust and Blue Hill Coop for a Great Maine Outdoors Weekend Harvest Moon Eclipse Night, 8:30 p.m.-midnight Sunday, Sept. 27, at the base of Blue Hill Mountain, Hayes Field. There will be a telescope on hand, hot cocoa and snacks. Free and open to all. Parking available in the lot and in the field across the road. Do not park on the road.

ELLSWORTH — Total lunar eclipse, 9-10:15 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 27, at Woodlawn Museum, Garden and Park, 19 Black House Drive, off Route 172. Bring hot chocolate or tea. Moon cookies provided. Free and open to the public. Donations appreciated. To reserve a seat, call Woodlawn at 667-8671 or email events@woodlawnmuseum.org. For information, visit www.woodlawnmuseum.org.

HOLDEN — Full moon paddle, 6-8 p.m., and lunar eclipse, 8:30-10 p.m. Monday, Sept. 28, Fields Pond. Coffee, doughnuts and a telescope available to view from shore. $5 for one event; $10 for both. Canoe rental with life jacket and paddles, $5. Headlamps and flashlights encouraged for the paddle; flashlights encouraged for eclipse event. For questions or to register, call the Fields Pond Audubon Center, 216 Fields Pond Road, at 989-2591.
