Contents of Estate Sale for one of the founding families of Houlton, Maine. The Aaron Putnam and Maria Louise Hacker Putnam estate features contents from the late 1800's and early 1900's. The Putnam Family were known for their dedication to the Maine Bar and Legislature, as a founding member of First National Bank, Bowdoin alumni, and strong interests in agriculture, sports, and music. The contents of this estate reveal a historic preservation of a prominent life in Aroostook County in the 1900's. Aaron, Maria, and their four children remained the sole inhabitants of the estate. Items include a 1900 Steinway Grand A Piano, sterling silver servingware, Nippon china, jewelry, a collection of vintage clothing, hats, furs, sporting equipment, and game boards, hand carved figurines, a mahogany Empire game table, early reproduction Chippendale furniture, Bowdoin College memorabilia, Houlton memorabilia, world travel souvenirs, a Winchester rifle, Regulator clock, mahogany furniture, art and much, much more. Items were well maintained and preserved.
