

From the Bangor Police: T-shirts, TMs, and thank yous

Duck of Justice
From the Bangor Police Department Facebook page

On “Thank a Police Officer Day” a couple of weeks ago, we got a bulletin board full of goodness. Bangor kids are awesome. While I perused the fantastic pictures, I determined that [one of the pictures] was a portrait of Officer George Spencer.

It is so close to his likeness that I have decided to make him a I.D. card with this as his picture. The artwork appears to include a patrol car as well. I love this stuff.

I cannot put them all on, but we want to thank the kids for thanking us. It took them lots of time to do this, and we appreciate it!

We are getting George a comb.

Our Duck of Justice Tees will be now ordered through our good friends at the Winterport Boot Shop in Brewer, Maine.

We no longer will be servicing mail orders here at the station as it has become very difficult. The good thing for you Outta-statahs is that you can use a credit card to make an order now. We no longer will barter for half cans of Moxie and homemade beef jerky.

The folks at Winterport Boot will also be supporting continuing outreach to those less fortunate by providing some very warm things this winter. Stay tuned for more about that.

Thanks to all the good folks at Winterport Boot and especially Kierie P. for her ability to see that we are just trying to do some good things here at BPD. Val at Logo motion still makes them the old fashion way. Whatever that means.

We will still be carrying a limited selection of shirts at Bangor P.D. for those last minute stops when you are in Maine to answer for your outstanding arrest warrants and so on.

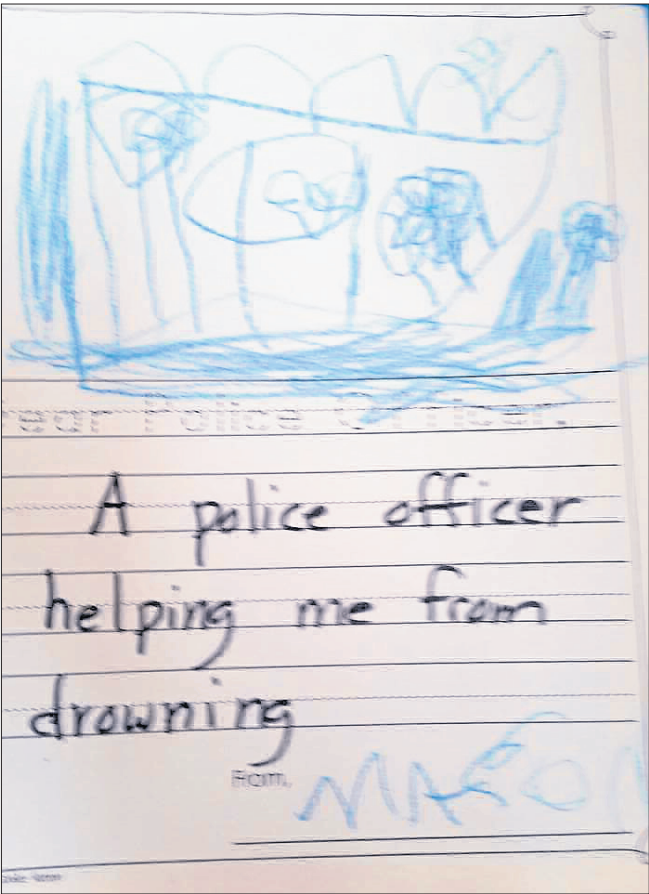

A person or persons made off with the donation jar at the Bangor Public Library.

From this point on, this person will be referred to as a thieving miscreant or, TM.

The jar was for future improvements and projects at the library. Have you no shame?

The jar was secured to the counter but the TM apparently spent a little time there. That time could have been better spent in the periodical section reading back issues of Honesty Quarterly.

I know the approximate amount of cash that was contained in the jar and it would have been better if you went and raked someone's leaves for the money. Of course, you would probably have stolen a rake to do it. You are not worthy of a free and open library.

If you have a change of heart or would like to apologize to the folks at the library and return the cash, I will support you emotionally.

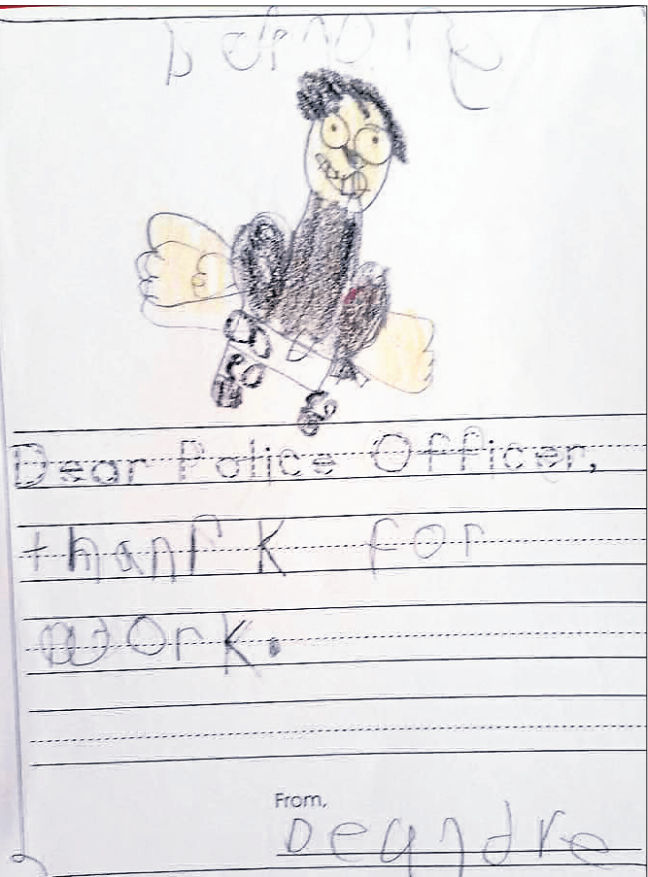

If you know who did it, drop me a PM on FB or call the tip line at 207-947-7384 and choose option #6. You can remain anonymous.

This is why we can't have nice things. Thanks for being a TM.

The men and women of the Bangor Police Department will be here...
