

A MILESTONE FOR CAMP ROOSEVELT

This year marks a milestone for the Katahdin Area Council's Camp Roosevelt. Celebrating its 95th anniversary, Camp Roosevelt is nestled on more than 1,800 acres at the base of Black Cap Mountain, including 300-acre Little Fitts Pond.

Camp Roosevelt has served as Katahdin Area Council's outdoor classroom since 1921 and is named in honor of U.S. President and conservationist Theodore Roosevelt.

The information included in this section is part of a larger historical record compiled by Gordon E. Reynolds.

